Juvenile Court Group Endorses Best Candidates

The Citizens' Juvenile Court Bipartisan committee of Marion County last week endorsed unanimously Harold N. Fields, Republican, and George H. Duffy, Democrat, as the best qualified candidates in each political party for Juvenile Court judge in the Primary May 8.

After interviewing three candidates these two were considered most suitable for the post. Judge Harold N. Fields, incumbent, is unopposed in the Republican primary while George H. Duffy must win a contest with Leo F. O'Connor in the Democratic primary. It is hoped by the members of the Bipartisan Committee that Mr. Duffy will be chosen for party backing in the primary.

Duffy, a graduate of Indiana University Law School, is a life-long resident of Indianapolis and was admitted to the bar in 1946. JUDGE FIELDS, completing his first four-year term as judge of the Juvenile Court, is also a graduate of Indiana University Law School, is a native of Indianapolis and is an army veteran of World War II.

The committee in its statement says: "The committee feels that Judge Fields has shown his ability in office and has done an excellent job of administering the court and of handling the difficult problems of juveniles."

"The committee feels that Mr. Duffy also shows an understanding of the functions and administration of a good Juvenile Court and is sincerely interested in doing the best possible job," the Co-Chairmen, Mrs. A. Richard Gaus, Republican, and Richard H. Continued on Page 2

Urge AMEZ's To Elect Rev. E. Kenney Bishop

When the AMEZ's General Conference gets around to its very important business of filling three of five vacancies in the bishopric, Dr. Edwin Kenney, pastor of Jones Tabernacle Church here, will be a strong candidate to fill one of the posts.

The General Conference meets May 2 to 16 in Pittsburgh.

Friends of Dr. Kenney, in this country and in Africa, assert with confident enthusiasm that as bishop he will do a superb job of establishing and advancing the veteran religious organization upon a basis that will assure more steady and lasting progress.

Highly educated and matured in judgment through broad experience, Dr. Kenney, as bishop, would give major concern to church expansion, extending home and foreign missions, creating an adequate budget for denominational promotion and securing and training a more efficient personnel to serve in foreign fields.

The Jones Tabernacle minister is especially interested in development and expansion of the schools and colleges maintained by the AMEZ Church in West Africa.

PRESENTLY there are 42 schools located in Liberia and Nigeria operated and supported entirely by funds contributed by the

DR. EDWIN KENNEY

AMEZ denomination.

Having visited and toured those countries Dr. Kenney knows first hand many of the problems facing those Negro countries and would exert strenuous energy and map sound plans to increase the leadership of the AMEZ

BOY ROBS GIRL SCOUT

A "mean" 14-year-old boy robbed a 11-year-old girl Scout selling cookies in the 600 block W. North street Wednesday.

Doris Jean Kirkman, 835 Fayette, said she was approached by the boy and asked if she had change for a $5 bill. As she counted her money, the heartless youth snatched it—$2.80—and fled.

Autherine Lucy Weds Minister

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Autherine Lucy, who gained world fame with her brave but futile attempts to enter the University of Alabama, was married in St. John's Baptist Church here Sunday to the Rev. C. Foster, 27, student and minister of two churches.

A throng estimated at 2,000 persons packed the church and waited outside as the Rev. Ernest Estell performed the double-ring ceremony. There were some white persons present.

Miss Lucy wore a full-length white peau de soire dress with a finger-tip-length veil.

Given in marriage by her brother, Taylor Lucy of Chicago, she was attended by four bridesmaids who wore ballerina length dresses in rainbow colors; a maid of honor, Miss Helen Crosby of Birmingham, whose pastel frock was opera-length; two flower girls dressed in white and a ringbearer.

Mrs. Bertha Fox of Detroit, sister of Miss Lucy, was matron of honor. After the ceremony, Rev. Foster gave his wife a light kiss on the cheek.

SEEING IS BELIEVING: The Clean-up Point-up, Fix-up Drive which begins Monday and ties in with efforts of city leaders to make Indianapolis "The Cleanest City in America" was given poignant and tragic emphasis this week when two small children died in a roaring fire as they lay abed in their substandard home at 614 Douglass street early Monday evening.

Fire inspectors pointed to scores of other flimsy dwellings that virtually are firetraps and within a stone's throw of the scene of Monday's tragedy. The buildings shown above are only several feet distant on Hadley and Center streets.

Fire hazards would be greatly reduced, with consequent saving of lives of young and old, if owners and occupants would do the simple things necessary, not only to make their properties fire-proof so far as possible, but help Indianapolis win the Cleanest (and Safest) City title.

White Man Held for Murder in Stoning Death of Aged Preacher

HUNTSVILLE, Ala.—A 22-year-old white man, accused of stoning to death of a 79-year-old Negro part-time preacher Sunday, is being held on a second degree murder charge, authorities said Wednesday.

Rev. L. C. Baldwin, struck by a 10-pound rock hurled from a passing convertible containing five white men, died after he fell to the pavement and struck his head, authorities determined. The missile had shattered one of his legs.

Charged with the murder was Doc Hill, who police said, threw the rock at the aged Negro as he led a cow along the shoulder of U. S. Highway 241 a short distance from here.

HILL was under a $5,000 bond. Held under $500 bonds as material witnesses were the four other occupants of the car, Charles Connally, 31; William Walling, 22; Walker Thompson, 20, and Jordan Vann, 26.

All live in the nearby small community of New Hope. Solicitor Glen Manning said the incident occurred while the five men were riding around Sunday afternoon drinking beer, visiting girls, shooting craps and throwing stones and beer cans at Negroes.

Two Negro boys reported to Highway Patrolman H. E. Holder that they saw the group in the car throwing stones at all Negroes and saw Baldwin struck as he led his cow along besides the highway.

The two colored boys, after witnessing the incident, gave highway patrolmen the accurate descriptions of the car and its occupants that led to the capture of the five men.

State troopers found the convertible near New Hope, occupied by five men, and placed them under arrest.

Manning said the case will be presented to Madison County grand jury when it convenes May 7.

Blame Faulty Wiring In Fire Fatal To 2 Tots

By JIM CUMMINGS

Faulty electrical wiring which the owner of the house neglected to have repaired was credited Thursday with causing the fire which took the lives of two tots Monday evening.

Bettina Ann Bryant, 2, and Donald Bryant, Jr., six months, were burned to death when fire swept through a three-room apartment at the rear of 614-16 Douglass street.

Mrs. Rosie Bryant, 20-year-old mother of the children, was away trying to contact an electrician when the fire broke out. The children were asleep in the apartment.

The deaths of the Bryant children brought to a total of 13 the number of Negro children who have been burned to death in Indianapolis in less than 18 months. In every case, except one, parents of the children were not at home when the fires started.

The Bryant apartment was three rooms tacked across the back of a double which had four rooms to each side. The construction of the apartment was very shabby and the small rooms were partitioned by cardboard.

CHIEF MICHAEL J. HYLAND, director of fire prevention for the fire department, investigated the fire and in an interview with The Recorder said, "the electrical wiring was in deplorable condition."

"The fuses were overloaded," he said, "and the electrical current backed up, blowing the fuses and causing sparks which ignited the highly-combustible materials of the apartment."

"The neglect of the owner of that house caused the deaths of those children," Chief Hyland Continued on Page 7

Court's Ruling Fails To Halt Ala. Bus Boycott

The Supreme Court's action Monday in virtually banning racial segregation on busses operated within state borders is producing little important change in the travel segregation pattern throughout the South generally, observers noted Wednesday.

Some observers felt that battle lines were further tightened for a critical showdown fight on the part of segregation-loving Dixiecrats, while others expressed the belief that the forthright emphatic action of the high court in unconditionally outlawing bus travel segregation, an extension of its school desegregation principle, has taken the heart out of many segregationists.

This latter theory is taken to mean that the South will gradually recede with as much "face-saving" as possible in bowing to the inevitable.

The Supreme Court, in a blunt decision, upheld the action of the Fourth District Circuit Court of Appeals which had held that the bus segregation law of South Carolina was unconstitutional.

MOST IMPORTANT, in refusing to receive the case presented it on appeal by the owners of the bus system of Columbia, S. C., the court cited another case in which the parties were sternly chided for bringing the appeal and "wasting the Court's time."

Legal circles understood that the Court meant it has decided the issue of racial segregation in its public phases and sees no further need for further interpretations.

The latest decision further underscores the Court's rejection of the "separate but equal facilities" doctrine in vogue for half a century and upon which the South built its segregation practices.

The action of the court had a most noticeable effect in Montgomery, Ala., where Negroes have been boycotting the local bus company in protest against its racial segregation policies.

IN THE WAKE of the high court decision, the Montgomery City Lines, operators of the bus company and hard hit by the 20-week boycott by Negro patrons who formed 85 per cent of its patronage, announced an end of segregation and invited patrons to return on a first-come-first-served basis.

This radical departure from the Southern tradition of segregation by the Northern-owned company, was met by vehement announcements by state and city officials that the segregation of the races on buses would be maintained despite the high court ruling.

These officials threatened to prosecute under Alabama's segregation law company officials and Negro and white patrons who attempted to seat members of the races indiscriminately.

Negro leaders of the boycott that made world news, said that the boycott would continue, however, until the company agrees to meet demands that Negro drivers be employed especially in the heavily populated Negro districts.

Hold Rites For Mrs. J. B. Carter

An overflow crowd of hundreds of persons attended services for Mrs. Maggie Carter, wife of Rev. J. B. Carter, pastor of the 25th Street Baptist Church, Monday morning.

Rev. A. M. Hughes, pastor of Greater St. Luke Baptist Church, served as master of ceremonies held in the church auditorium.

Mrs. Carter was found dead in her home Thursday last week. She was feelingly lauded as a wife and Christian woman of sterling character. Speakers cited her dependability in all matters, her sincerity and devotion to Christian duty, her genuine love of people and her eager readiness to help those in distress.

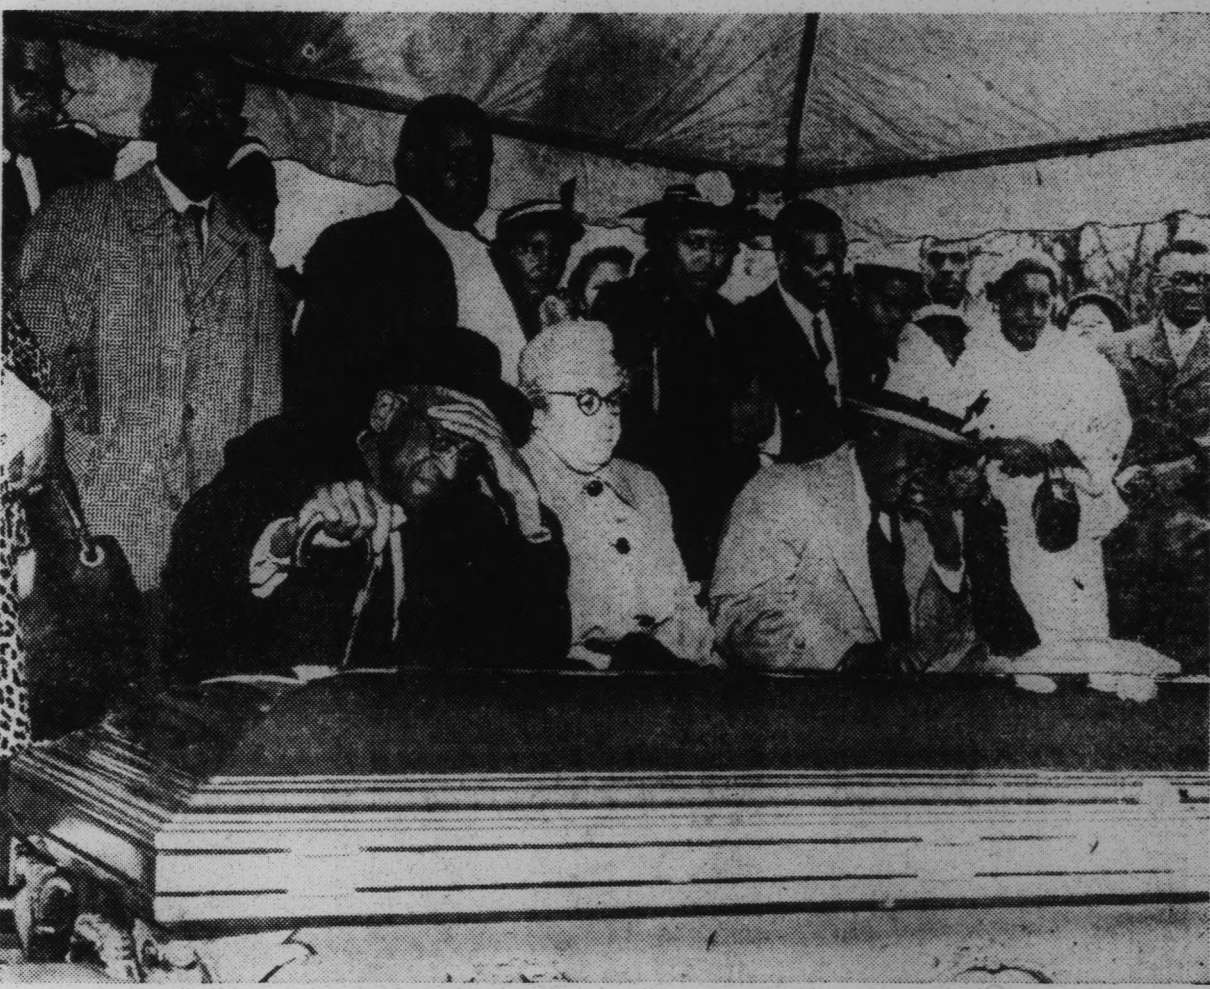

SHORT TALKS were given by Reverends J. J. Crook, A. Wadsworth, D. B. Dudley, F. F. Young, William Hughley, and Z. P. Pittman, moderator of the District Convention, and Rev. R. T. Andrews, moderator of the Indiana Baptist State Convention.

Mrs. Carter was a member of numerous religious organizations and was active in supporting Christian principles in the church and community.

Deacons of the church served as pallbearers. A note of moving pathos was struck by her husband, Rev. Carter, when he sang, "Jesus, Hold My Hand."

There were more than 40 large floral pieces attesting the sorrow of her friends at her death. Approximately 150 cars formed the funeral procession to Crown Hill for the burial.

Services were conducted by the Patton Funeral Home.

FAREWELL TO A DEVOUT CHRISTIAN WOMAN: Numerous friends and church members attended the funeral and burial of Mrs. Maggie Carter, wife of Rev. J. B. Carter, pastor of the 25th Street Baptist Church. Rev. Carter (left), himself suffering from a long illness followed the body of his beloved wife to its final resting place in Crown Hill. He was attended by Red Cross Nurse Mrs. J. B. Crook (center). Right, Joseph Royster, a brother of Mrs. Carter and a deacon of the 25th Street Church.

Denies NAACP Supports GOP

NEW YORK (ANP)—The NAACP policy is firmly non-partisan and his Chicago speech of April 11 was not a call to Negro voters to support the Republican Party, it was declared this week by Roy Wilkins, executive secretary.

"The exact text of the Chicago remarks was not published, but instead interpretations were used," Wilkins said. "A small section of the speech dealt with the fact that Senator James O. Eastland of Mississippi is now chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee and voters were called upon to consider this and other problems with the suggestion that if necessary we might help our brothers in the South by the way we vote in the North.

"We run a risk whenever we urge any type of action on this issue, but it is a risk we take without giving allegiance to either party. We believe it our duty to keep pounding for civil rights, seeking action by both parties on the bill now before Congress."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—
Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name Preparation H.* The price is only 98¢ a tube including an applicator. The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly. *Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Born in Russellville, Ala., she lived here 34 years and was a member of Jones Tabernacle AME Church.

Surviving are a stepson, William Gregory, Indianapolis and a cousin, Mrs. Mattie Gregory Black, Nashville, Tenn.

Heads Cleveland's Church Federation

CLEVELAND — For the first time in its history, the Cleveland Church Federation has elected a Negro as president.

Election of Judge Perry B. Jackson, Municipal Court, is believed the first of his race ever to be so honored by a church group in a major American city.

Judge Jackson, nationally known layman of the AME Church, served three years previously as vice-president in charge of social work.

He was given the Community Chest's distinguished service award last November and received the human relations award of the Cleveland Roundtable of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

A former member of the Ohio State legislature, he is a grand secretary of the Elks. He has served as police prosecutor and presently is Cleveland's traffic judge.

Civil Defense Police Carnival Now Open At Douglass Park

There's no end of fun and frolic for everyone now being offered at the Civil Defense Police Exposition at Douglass Park. Hundreds of kiddies and oldsters who remember the happy times they had last year, are already making tracks daily to the Eastside outdoor recreation center.

The thrill-packed carnival that opened April 25, will continue through Sunday, May 6.

Features of the festival include a nightly aerial performance by the incomparable Capt. Billy Scheaffer and other circus acts, which are free.

Especially appealing to all groups of people are the 12 varieties of rides that have no equal as thrill-producers. The nightly program also includes singing and dancing for boys and girls.

HIGHLIGHT of the 12-day carnival will be a free drawing in which the winner, the lucky boy or girl, will be awarded a new, handsome and expensive bicycle. The drawing will be held Sunday, May 6 at 5 p. m., and will be open to all boys and girls attending the festival.

To be eligible, each boy and girl has only to fill out the coupon appearing in the large ad of the Civil Defense Police Exposition appearing in this issue of The Recorder, and turn in the coupon at the box office at Douglass Park any time before 4 p. m. Sunday, May 6, one hour before drawing.

A bargain matinee program will be held Saturday afternoons at which kiddies may buy 12 thrilling rides for $1.00.

THE RIDES will be found attractively and conveniently placed about the popular park at 25th and Martindale avenue which may be easily reached by street buses.

The festival is sponsored by the Civil Defense Police (CDP) and is ably directed by Paul Miller. Net proceeds will be used by the CDP to acquire equipment and the facilities necessary to serve the community in case of air raids and other forms of death-dealing attacks to which everyone would be subjected.

Rev. Walter R. Hill

Services for Rev. Walter R. Hill, 47, founder and pastor of the Golden Rule Baptist Church, were held April 21 at Shiloh Baptist Church, the Stuart Mortuary conducting and burial in Floral Park.

Rev. Hill died April 18 in General hospital and lived at 1011 E. 21st.

Born in Athens, Ga., he lived here 27 years.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Hattie Mae Hill; a brother, Willie B. Hill; four sisters, Mrs. Ollie Bell Young, Athens, Ga.; Mrs. Catherine Moreland, and Misses Susie Mae and Desorie Hill of Atlanta; two nephews, Frederick Hill and Allen Starks both of Indianapolis and two nieces, Mrs. Juanita Starks and Mrs. Celestine Alexander, both of Indianapolis.

K. Dunham Sued For $20,503 Taxes

SAN FRANCISCO (CNS)—
The Federal Government says
Katherine Dunham — who hadn't been to the States in years prior to her recent tour — owes $20,503 on withholding taxes for her employee pay-rolls from 1946 through 1954.
A federal tax lien has been

San Francisco.
Miss Dunham's lawyer, J.

was "a terrible mistake." He's trying to settle the action by negotiating with tax officials in San Francisco. He also added that Miss Dunham, who is currently on tour in Mexico, has no property in the U. S. and thereby implies that nothing could be attached by the government to force payment.

Spring Clean-up Drive Opens Here Next Week

"Look Safe, Feel Safe, Be Safe
From Fire—Clean Up!"
That's the slogan for this year's Spring Clean-up campaign in Indianapolis, Fire Chief Arnold W.
Phillips announced this week.
The dates for Indianapolis's annual Spring Clean-up drive will be April 30 through May 12, according to the chief.
The fire department will sponsor the campaign locally. The national sponsors are the National Fire Protection Association and the International Association of Fire Chiefs.
Cooperating with the fire department in this year's clean-up observance will be the Yard Parks Organization sponsored by the City Administration, the Chamber of Commerce and the Indianapolis Star; the merchant's association; industrial, service and civic clubs; youth groups, veteran's organizations, women's clubs, etc.

The week-long campaign will point up the importance of cleanup as one of the best ways to stop fires before they start. Among the events planned are: a parade, demonstrations, contests, youth and school activities, inspections, etc.

Italy, Ethiopia Settle War Claims

Under an agreement signed
March 5, Italy has agreed to pay
Ethiopia $16,000,000 as compensation for the damages suffered by the black monarchy in the infamous "rape of Ethiopia" by Mussolini.
Although this sum represents a substantial amount for Ethiopia whose budget amounts to only $50,000,000 annually, it is less than 5 percent of the original claim of $518,000,000.
Both countries have been beneficiaries of substantial aid from the United States and Great Britain.
A vast road-building program is under way in Ethiopia which has a population of 15,000,000.
The export of coffee, netting $30 million dollars annually, has helped the country to balance its budget and maintain a surplus in its balance of payments with the outside world.

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

Perhaps smarting over the memory that in the past it has been none too appreciative, our fair city recently is having quite a wave of appreciativeness. On Saturday night a big banquet and house party honored Ray Crowe, on Tuesday night a dinner honored Rev. R. H. Peoples, and next Sunday a program is to honor Mrs. Ellen T. Meriwether.

The Ray Crowe affair, with Mark D. Batties as chairman and Dr. Robert W. Briggs as co-chairman, was carefully carried out with attention to all those little details which make an enjoyable evening.

Highlighting the banquet at the Indiana University Medical Center's Student Union Building was the presentation of an ultrasonic therapy machine to Attucks high school, Ray Crowe accepting the expensive equipment on behalf of the school from Dr. Briggs on behalf of an appreciative public.

Spurling Clark was master of ceremonies for the banquet program. Listed were the contributors who together gave more than $1,200 toward the success of the affair. Some of them were a little saddened, but understanding, when they learned IHSAA rules would not permit them to give Ray the personal tokens of appreciation they wanted to give.

The party which followed at the Briggs home was a delight, especially after the huge crowd thinned out some. With headquarters in the pavilion customarily used for entertaining large crowds, an additional tent had been put up adjacent, to make more space for the hundreds of people who made the long drive out into the country for the party.

A table laden with the customary picnic fare was a steady attraction throughout the evening, especially as the "Virginia" ham (the Virginia being Mrs. Briggs) was so delicious. A large pit for roasting wieners did not feel neglected, either. And not the least of the attractions was the cask of draught beer, which, during the early part of the evening, at least, attracted almost as many guests as did the well-equipped bar.

Following an otherwise quiet weekend and the Monday night presentation of Eleanor Steber at the Murat theater, which I was enabled to attend through the generosity of Mrs. Myrtle Brooks, it was over to Second Christian Church, where the members proudly honored their pastor, Rev. R. H. Peoples, president of the National Christian Missionary Convention, with a recognition dinner.

Louis G. Hill, Jr., presided at the dinner program, for which

Dr. Blair T. Hunt, pastor of Mississippi Boulevard Christian Church, Memphis, and former president of the national church body, was speaker. The opening prayer was given by Rev. E. J. Dickson, and Dr. Laurence T. Hosie brought greetings from the Church Federation.

J. H. Hamlin made remarks, and after that gifts were showered on Rev. Peoples and Mrs. Peoples got a corsage so fast, I could not get the names of those making the presentations.

Rev. Peoples accepted the accolades with the quiet spirit so familiar and likable to those who know him.

I had to dash away from there just a little early in order to be at Caleb Mills Hall to hear the closing concert by the Philharmonic Orchestra of Indianapolis, as guest of LaVerne E. Newsome. He, incidentally, used to be president of the orchestra's personnel and continues, as far as I know, to be.

The orchestra, aside from the commendability of its completely interracial policy, is steadily making better music. It must be a great joy to the bulk of the members, most of whom are non-professional musicians, to be able to participate in performing such lovely music as the Mozart hour concerto they did Tuesday night.

It was also nice to see so many of my brethren and sisters of dusky hue present. A project such as the philharmonic orchestra deserves the full support of the community.

It is always a good idea to send press tickets at least two weeks in advance, if at all possible. That way a busy, often harassed newspaperman can schedule attendance at affairs with some rhyme or reason.

Mrs. S. D. Meriwether was hostess to the last meeting of the Meadmore Guild, at which reports indicated a hearty community response to the guild's project for the year.

Members present were Mesdames J. Leon Simms, Robert W. Briggs, H. H. Murray, John Brown, H. N. Middleton, Spurling Clark, Mary Ward Roberts, Charles Brown, R. B. McArthur, C. B. Cox, W. H. Maddux, J. Robert Lawson, O. B. Paige and F. E. Chowning and the Misses Ollie and Corine Middleton.

SPEAKER: Miss Willie Effie Thomas, outstanding civic leader and school teacher at Evansville and that city's correspondent for The Recorder, has two speaking engagements for the weekend. As state NAACP youth advisor, she will be banquet speaker during the state convention of the Kentucky NAACP, April 27-29 at Owensboro and will be speaker Sunday afternoon for "Woman's Day" at Smithfield Baptist Church, Rockport.

A GREAT CHAMP: Everyone agrees that Ray Crowe is a great champ, and many of his friends gathered at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Briggs last Saturday night to honor him at a party. In the top picture Mr. and Mrs. Crowe are seated with Mrs. Mark D. Batties and Mrs. Briggs, while standing are Mrs. Batties, chairman of the appreciation dinner given in his honor, Alonzo Watford, athletic director at Attucks, and Dr. Briggs, co-chairman of the dinner. Around the service table in the lower picture are Bob Collins of The Star and Brownell Payne, Attucks tennis coach, in the foreground, and in the back ground with Crowe are Jimmy Angelopoulos of The Times, Spurling Clark, master of ceremonies for the dinner, and Bob Traugott, businessman.

Introduced as new to the district were Mesdames Orlando Kendrick, Beatrice Buchanan and Mattie Lewis and Miss Willie Effie Thomas, Evansville.

All clubs represented gave wonderful reports of their work during the year.

Officers present in addition to the state president were Miss Millie Hoffman, past state president, and Mrs. Roberta Clay, Central District president, both of Lafayette; Mrs. Zerah Carter, national NAACP board chairman, Evansville, and Mrs. Clara Phillips, state trustee and publicity director, Indianapolis.

The bus for Lafayette will leave the club home Saturday morning at 7 for the Central District meeting. Mrs. Roberta Clay is Central District president. Contact Mrs. Dorothea Breeding for information.

The City Federation, under the leadership of Mrs. Haldee Wilson, was to entertain the Attucks Tigers at the club home on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. Clara Johnson, president, and members of the Altruistic club are planning a very unusual turkey dinner and all the trimmings Thursday at the club home.

Next Thursday's meeting will be with Mrs. Lena Brown as hostess.

The Federated Charmettes met with Mrs. Mary Barnett, and next meeting will be next Thursday with Mrs. Cordie McKenzie, 119 West 29th street.

Mrs. Isabelle Taylor, 4044 Cornelia avenue, will be hostess Friday to the Progressive Needlecraft club.

Mrs. Fannie LaRue will be hostess to the Thursday Coterie next week at her home, 2051 Boulevard place. The club is planning a social affair for Sunday, May 27.

Members of the Household Arts club enjoyed a buffet lunch last week at the home of Mrs. Margaret Bayler. Next Tuesday's meeting will be with Mrs. Sybil Brown, 1832 Highland place.

The Colonial Matrons Charity and Literary club will meet Friday with Mrs. Genevieve Frazier, 1832 Highland place.

The Lend A Hand club, of which Mrs. Fannie Bartlett is president, will sponsor its "Mad Hatters' Breakfast" Saturday morning, May 5.

Club women have been urged not to forget the "Who's Who" project. Pictures should be sent this week to Mrs. Fanny Benford in Gary.

Members of Chi chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority are busily planning for the chapter's annual "Jabberwock" for benefit of its scholarship fund. The affair will be held Saturday night, May 5, at the IBEW Hall, starting at 8:15.

Highlights of the presentation will be the traditional skills by competing organizations and the crowning of "Miss Jabberwock," winner of a popularity contest conducted during the weeks preceding the show.

This year the theme will be "Monochromatic Moods," and the show promises to be quite colorful.

Inaugurated last year was the additional feature of dancing by all following the skits. Music will be provided by Henry D. Cain and his combo.

The public is invited to the "Jabberwock," tickets for which at $1.25 may be purchased from any Delta.

Deltas Plan For Annual "Jabberwock"

Mrs. Ann Pace is president of the chapter, and Miss Sherlee Bluestein and Mrs. Harriette Bailey Conn are co-chairmen of the "Jabberwock."

Familiar Faces Members Go "Out"

Members of the Familiar Faces club had quite a "night out" last Saturday night following the regular meeting at the home of Willie Payne, 1511 Columbia avenue. The men attended the party of the Gay Nocturnes club at the El Amigo Hall and the "Mock Bazaar" of the Angels club at the W.A.C. Home, where W. Earl Sharber, a member, won a prize in the cake walk.

A call meeting will be held Wednesday night with Mr. Sharber, 129 Puryear street, and the next regular meeting will be with Dave Smith, 2372 Winthrop avenue.

An appreciative response has been received by the activities committee in answer to recent letters sent out to affiliated groups. Participants on the program, models and cash contributions have been received.

Mrs. Ethel Ryan, committee chairman, says she is still waiting for your call.

Our president and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Starling W. James, represented Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Cunn.

Chatting with the FAC

By ELSA JACKSON

New life seems to have been injected into members of the board of directors, perhaps as result of the outstanding meeting of last Monday night. Every member present pledged himself faithfully to support the program of the FAC. Mrs. Lula Hodge, chairman of the board, presided.

Miss Euras Biggins says there is still time for interested persons to order homemade doughnuts. The delicacies are to be delivered at the regular FAC meeting Monday night, May 14. Advance orders assure the success of the sale.

The ways and means committee's benefit card party will begin at 8 Friday night in the Aron Room. A cash prize and numerous merchandise prizes are on hand for the winners. The public is invited.

A special committee on the 1956 Recognition Awards program met in the club home on Thursday night of last week. Employers who have hired persons regardless of race, color or creed will be significantly honored. Mrs. Margaret Boone is chairman of the committee.

Mrs. Frances Howard is still seeking contestants for the "King or Queen" contest to begin in May. The person crowned will win a trip to Northern Canada and other points of interest on the 1956 educational tour. Persons interested may call their names in to the office.

Mrs. Mayme Young is latest addition to the list of tourists for the 1956 trip.

Mr. James was spokesman for the PTAs of Schools Nos. 26, 29, 37 and 56 Thursday morning to tell the board of public works about the needs of the community.

Rev. Jessie Mae Hicks, San Antonio, Tex., was entertained at a luncheon by Mrs. Louella Smith Harper while in our city.

Mrs. Hicks, operator of the Hicks Beauty School in San Antonio, is also a missionary, recently returned from Liberia. She donated 100 acres of land to the Liberians and has constructed on the land a beauty school, home for the blind and a dormitory.

Guests at the luncheon were Mesdames Essie G. Ray, Ethel B. Edelen, Fannie Young, Maude Dancy and Martha Lamb.

Mrs. Hicks was also taken on a tour of the city.

Yearbooks are in the office and may be picked up at one's convenience. The books are nice, and everyone who sees them takes one.

Mrs. James will be master of ceremonies for a special program Sunday afternoon at Barnes Methodist Church for the unveiling of a beautiful oil painting of "The Last Supper," purchased by the membership.

Mrs. Edna Martin of the Eastside Christian Center will be principal speaker, and the response will be given by Mrs. Thelma Herrington. Others on program are Mrs. Helen F. Laster and Dr. Sylvester Moore, soloists; Lucy Maxwell, dramatic reader, and the senior choir, directed by Mrs. Berna Howard. Mrs. Mary Catherine Venable will introduce the speaker.

Finances will be handled by Mesdames Ocaretta Hewitt and Lillian Goens, while Reginald Dunlop will offer the invocation. Mrs. Lena Harris will give remarks.

Mrs. Harry B. Lynem is general chairman, and Mrs. Lula Bean is assistant chairman.

Eastside Center To Hold Annual Mother's Day Tea

The Service club of the Eastside Christian Center will present its annual Mother's Day Tea at 3:30 Sunday afternoon, May 13, at the Center, 1537 North Arsenal avenue. Highlighting the affair will be the presentation of the nursery department in a "Tiny Tots' Revue" and contest. A special musical program is being arranged.

Miss Diana Bradley is president of the club, and Mrs. Thelma Herrington is sponsor, with Mrs. Josephine Squires as co-chairman. Mrs. Edna M. Martin is director of the center.

Mrs. John G. Heeter, 3241 Boulevard place, is able to be out after having been confined to her home.

J. J. Johnson passed through the city last week en route to California for a six weeks' engagement.

IMPROVED SCALP... MAGNIFICENT HAIR

Advanced Medicated Sulfur-8 Now Works 'Miracles' Both Ways

Millions now know that something wonderful happens when you rub the new, improved Sulfur-8 through your hair and into your scalp.

SCALP AWAKENED by new stimulation of Sulfur-8, is "vitalized" to feel more alive and healthy, and scalp trouble itching is relieved. Just watch how your scalp thrives on Sulfur-8!

HAIR TOO SHORT? The deep acting sulfur-lanolin formula makes a marvelous new difference, redeeming the glory of your hair when brittle-dry strands keep cracking off and frizzy split ends make it seem even shorter.

NEW SCIENTIFIC MEDICATION Sulfur-8 now has extra power to fight off surface scalp germs that often aggravate infections.

ONLY Sulfur-8 has that advanced medicated formula with the rare new scientific super-sulfur.

A GORGEOUS HEAD OF HAIR

Soft, Smooth, Lustrous Looking So Much Richer, Healthier and Longer

Hair experts have been amazed to see how that advanced Sulfur-8 now brings out glorious new hair beauty, with soft luster and longer, healthier, richer appearance.

You'll like the new luxury fragrance and delicate lightness of the new advanced Sulfur-8. And when you give it a chance to work you'll see a MARVELOUS DIFFERENCE, as your poor parched hair begins to reveal its true, full natural length — so silky smooth and lovely.

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. McGUIRE

"The Christian game is best of all . . . Youth should not be shy about religion, but should be anxious to call on God in prayer for help on the playing field, classroom and in ever respect of life." This was the advice given in the daily papers by top athletes such as Dr. Roe H. Johnston, Dan Towler, Ken Turman, Temple Tucker and Don McClaren. Who does not need to pray? We are driven to prayer when we seem to have exhausted our own resources, when our wisdom and skill are insufficient for the need we face. These young men are to be commended for their expressions.

The Wee Triumph Angels and the Triumph Lamp Lighters of this city will render a full program May 6 in Muncie at the Triumph Church. It has been reported there is hardly standing room when these groups make their appearances.

Mrs. Priscilla Dean Lewis, owner of the Fashionette Styling School, has been in Kansas City, Mo., more than three weeks attending the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Goldman, who was largely responsible for the education received by Mrs. Lewis. She reports her sister has been in the Queen of the World Hospital over a month, undergoing major surgery twice.

Another sister, Mrs. M. Kelly-brew, went by air to assist Mrs. Lewis. I am sure cards sent to 2348 Lockridge, Kansas City, Mo., will be appreciated.

Rev. W. L. Lewis of Shelby, Miss., has started off in a big way revival services at Emmanuel Baptist Church, of which Rev. F. T. Hatcher is pastor. A special appeal is made to the general public, saved and unsaved alike, to come and hear this great speaker.

The Progressive Series Parents club is inviting friends to an "Appreciation Hour" Sunday from 4 to 7 at Allen Chapel AME Church in honor of Mrs. Ellen Thomas Meriwether. Friends may contact Mrs. Geneva Jackson, 2414 Valley avenue, treasurer for the affair. Telegrams and flowers may be sent direct to the church.

Mrs. Meriwether is very desirous of this recognition service.

The Dorcas Missionary Society of New Bethel Baptist Church will sponsor a new service Sunday afternoon, May 6, at 3, with Rev. Stephen T. Wells, pastor of Corinthian Baptist Church, as guest speaker, accompanied by the young adult choir directed by Jacques Sneed.

Dr. F. Benjamin Davis is host pastor, and Miss Verdel Moore is group chairman. All missionary groups are especially invited.

William Gullions Visit C. D. Smiths

Mr. and Mrs. William Gullion, Ottawa, Ill., spent several days here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smith, 926 Roache street, while en route to Owensboro, Ky., for a two-week vacation with her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crowe, and her father, John Simmons.

Mrs. Gullion was formerly a resident of this city and a member of Bethel AME Church.

MORE For Your Money

Last Sunday morning the Ole Scribe and hubby were surprised to have Winston Moran of Columbus, O., as guest. Others included Mr. and Mrs. O. Hallstock, Dr. W. M. Murphy and J. Mason. Mr. Moran came for his mother's 65th birthday.

On Saturday a cousin, Sgt. John Thomas Smith, was guest of the columnist. Sgt. Smith is now stationed in California with the Army, serving his seventh year and he says he doesn't intend to get out. He pulls the scales at 240 pounds, so after serving his several years, I think he should continue to let Uncle Sam feed him. He very well matches another good friend of mine, R. C. H. Now who is that? None other than your social editor (And if Sgt. Smith weighs 240 pounds, he more than matches me, Mrs. Mary P. McGuire Connell—the R. C. H.)

Rev. Robert L. Saunders, pastor of Second Baptist Church, Shelbyville, is conducting a ten-night revival for True Vine Baptist Church, of which Rev. W. I. Jones is pastor. Rev. Saunders is a real Gospel preacher and spiritual singer. He will close the revival Friday, but will speak for the missionary society of Eastern Star Baptist Church at 8 Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Beulah Bridges is missionary president, and Mrs. Marie Bledsoe is program chairman. Rev. P. C. Owens is pastor of Eastern Star Church.

Members of New Baptist Church, especially the ladies under the direction of Mrs. B. T. Almon, are calling in the aprons sent out some time ago. Here is where you must do a good job. Send in the correct amount of your weight, and a $1.00 pound would be great. The "round-up" program will be held Sunday afternoon at 3.

For another event Sunday, Lester McClung announces a tea given by the City Ushers Union at Jordan Hall of the Phyllis Wheatley CA. All ushers of the union will take part.

Speaking of Mr. McClung, he was the first Negro streetcar operator here and is still making good.

CAHS Music Department Announces Officers for Year

The music department of Crispus Attucks high school has announced officers for the school year. It was announced this week. For the boys' glee club, under the direction of Norman L. Merrifield, elected were Bob Sharp, president; Larry Young, vice-president; Shaddock Minton, secretary; Henry West, assistant secretary, and William Ware, Dewitt Samuels and Lee Baker, librarians.

President of the choir is Charles Simmons, and other officers are Robert Ramsey, vice-president; Anita Burney, secretary; Clarice White, assistant secretary, and Doris Brewster, Charles Douglas, Willie Lewis and Shirley Crossin, librarians. Mr. Merrifield is director.

Officers of the girls' glee club, of which Mrs. Marion Burch is director, are Sandra Prather, president; Yvonne Robinson, vice-president; Jo Ellen Poindexter, secretary; Phyllis Greene, assistant secretary; Mildred Williams, hostess, and Opal Henderson, book-keeper.

Janet Frances was elected president of the girls' chorus I, also directed by Mrs. Burch. Others elected were Peggy Pierson, vice-president; Diane Bridgeforth, secretary; Gloria Hogan, assistant secretary; Patricia Pruitt and Marietta Bailey, bookkeepers, and Charlene Vaden, hostess.

Elected for girls' chorus II are Sybil Cureton, president; Janice Tandy, vice-president; Marian Bennett, secretary; and Regina Bridgeforth, hostess.

Captain of the band, directed by Russell W. Brown, is Franklin Minton. Others elected were Virgil Jones and Reuben Burnett, lieutenants.

Officers for the orchestra, under the direction of LaVerne E. Newsome, are Maxine Cornell, president and concertmistress; Aletha Weir, vice-president; Yvonne Mann, Patricia Wilson, Yvonne Chrisler and Donald Patrick, librarians.

Janet Frances was elected president of the girls' chorus I, also directed by Mrs. Burch. Others elected were Peggy Pierson, vice-president; Diane Bridgeforth, secretary; Gloria Hogan, assistant secretary; Patricia Pruitt and Marietta Bailey, bookkeepers, and Charlene Vaden, hostess.

It Wouldn't Be Mother's Day Without It Unless You . . . Send Flowers—the Gift Expressive from Atkins Flower Shop 2049 NORTH CAPITOL AVENUE WALNUT 5-7556 INDIANAPOLIS 2, INDIANA

BEAUTIFUL? This beautiful coiffure is typical of the many to be shown in the gigantic Hair Style Show by twelve outstanding artists, planned as a highlight of the three-day clinic sponsored by the Indiana Hair Designing Institute during its annual convention here April 29-May 2, with headquarters at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA.

Licensed Beauticians, Answers for Questions

Licensed beauticians will be given a chance to advance in their art over the weekend and early next week as the Indiana Hair Designing Institute sponsors a three-day workshop clinic conducted by the nationally-known expert, Mrs. Lillian D. Robinson.

Especially to be covered by Mrs. Robinson are such items as analysis of a face, to determine if it is round, square, triangular, oblong or oval and how to style the hair for a square face with a short, thick neck, a short face with broad nose, or long nose, small eyes and low forehead.

To take up such questions as how to enter and leave a room gracefully, what to do with hands while standing, what to do with hands while sitting, what to do with feet, standing or sitting will be the charm class consultant, Miss Perita Bates, noted St. Louis charm consultant and John Powers model.

Miss Bates will conduct the charm class in connection with the three-day clinic, offering local women an opportunity to iron out wrinkles which are perhaps personal peculiarities.

All of this, the Hair Designing Institute points out, is available without having to travel to New York, California, Canada, or Paris. Local women have only to travel as far as the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA.

As a bonus, offered will be a gigantic Hair Style Show by twelve outstanding artists and a complete show of clothing from Miss Bates' personally-designed wardrobe. The style show, to be held Wednesday night, May 2, at 8, is open to the public.

Closing the clinic will be a dance at the Walker Casino.

Registration for the clinic will be held at 4:30 Sunday afternoon, and workshops will be held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from 9 until 4, according to Flinn H. Moses, president of the Indiana Hair Designing Institute.

Phyllis Woods Is April Bride

Mrs. Gene P. Scott was Miss Phyllis C. Woods before her marriage Saturday, April 7. The couple were married by Rev. Henry Fingerlin, pastor of Our Saviour Lutheran Church. Mrs. Janet Burnett was her sister's only attendant, and Paul Davis, Rushville, was best man.

Mrs. Scott is the daughter of Mrs. Orelva Woods and William Woods of this city, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Scott, Rushville. After a small reception at the home of the bride's mother, the couple left on a short wedding trip.

On April 12 the couple were entertained at the home of the groom's parents with a dinner party. Attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Paul Davis, Ray Williams, John Brooks and Buford Taylor and Miss Blanche English, all of Rushville, and Charles Bowman of Indianapolis. The couple will reside at 1108 West 37th street.

WALKER CONTEST WINNERS: Winners in the popularity contest at the Walker College of Beauty Culture conducted recently were Lillian Chestnut, Gussie Cooperwood and Beatrice White.

Walker College Names "Miss Walker" Winner

Mrs. Mae F. Simmons, principal of the Mm. C. J. Walker College of Beauty Culture, as announced as winners of the popularity contest conducted annually at the college Lillian Chestnut, Gussie R. Cooperwood and Beatrice White.

Mrs. Chestnut, named "Miss Walker," is a member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church, its Harmonette Octette and its missionary chorus as well as of the Indianapolis Glove Company quartet. She is employed at the glove company.

Singing, sewing and doing missionary work her main interests, aside from beauty culture, and she served as first president of the Mt. Olive missionary society. She resides at 3131 Boulevard place.

Attending Schools Nos. 24 and 17, Shortridge and Crispus Attucks high schools, Mrs. Chestnut always had the desire to study beauty culture and be a cosmetologist. So, with her children Jerrie and Eddy through school and married, she contacted Mrs. Simmons and immediately began enjoying classes at the Walker College. In winning the "Miss Walker Popularity Contest," she was aided tremendously by her husband, James, and many friends.

Mrs. Cooperwood, second-place winner, is married to Norman Cooperwood and resides at 1327 West 34th street. She is a member of Northside New Era Baptist Church, where she is active in the usher board. She is also assistant secretary of the Seeker of Truth club and is the niece of the pastor, Rev. N. E. Vincent.

In 1955, during a visit to New York City, Mrs. Cooperwood saw a lovely beauty shop and made up her mind to become a beautician. She returned to Indianapolis and enrolled in the Walker College in October, 1955. At present employed at RCA, she plans to open her own shop.

Mrs. White, winner of third place, came to Indianapolis from Pontiac, Mich., in September, 1955. She is a member of Puritan Baptist Church, of which Rev. Samuel Swaney is pastor.

She entered the Walker College in February, 1956, and spends all her time between her employment and her beauty school work.

JOHN JAMES, executive secretary of the Senate Avenue YMCA, will be guest speaker at St. Mark AME Sunday at 3 p. m.

DELEGATES AND MEMBERS of the AMEZ Churches in Indianapolis will leave next week to attend the General Conference meeting in Pittsburgh. Among local delegates are Mrs. William Elliott, of St. Mark; Rev. Mary Johnson, pastor of Alleyne Chapel; Rev. G. A. Brooks, pastor of Caldwell; Rev. G. A. Heeter, pastor of Campbell's Chapel; Dr. Edwin Kennedy, pastor of Jones Tabernacle; Rev. B. H. Barnett, pastor of Penick Chapel and Rev. F. M. Webb, pastor of St. Mark.

APPEALS FOR MONEY for churches are "pretty thin" if made for pride, patriotism, fear or other flimsy or false motives, protestant stewardship leaders were warned by Dr. John Peters, speaking at the National Council of Churches recently. Head of the stewardship department of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., he asserted, "Our response to the Love of Christ is the foundation of living."

DR. V. W. McLAULDER of Shiloh Baptist will be guest speaker at First Baptist, North Indianapolis Sunday, 3 p. m. on a program sponsored by the scholarship committee of the church.

FAMILY WEEK will be observed in many churches throughout the nation May 6-13. Church workers are planning to invite whole families to attend church services together on Sunday and join in special activities during the week.

KKK REVIVAL: Giant fiery crosses blazed in Florida and Georgia cities recently, in an open attempt to revive Ku Klux Klan activities in the two states. In Macon, Ga., the first Klan meeting in six years was attended by young and old alike (left), who came to hear hate mongers preach defiance of the Supreme Court rulings on desegregation. The meetings marked the first time that the Klan has allowed television cameras to record the scene, and the principals disdained the use of face masks to hide their identities from the world. (Newspress Photo).

Army Offers Recruits Chance To Enjoy Europe

According to Sgt. Earl Black, local Army recruiter for this area, authority is granted his station to accept young men without prior service in limited numbers for assignment to the 10th Infantry Division now stationed at Wurzburg, Germany.

Young men who qualify will be forwarded from place of acceptance to the Indianapolis Recruiting Main Station for final qualification and acceptance. Personnel who pass mental and physical qualifications at the Recruiting Main Station will then be forwarded to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., for a few days to receive initial processing which consists of completion of Army records, clothing issue, $20.00 advanced pay, aptitude area testing and inoculation shots.

They will then be sent to Fort Ord, Calif., for 8 to 16 weeks basic training. After completion of training in California, the Replacement Packet will be shipped as a group to the 10th Infantry Division in Europe.

THIS is a wonderful opportunity, according to Sgt. Black, for young men to enlist with their friends, receive basic training together at Fort Ord, California, serve in Europe with the famous 10th Infantry Division and return to the United States with the Division sometime during the early part of 1958.

The Sergeant also reiterated that for people who would like to travel, this would be a marvelous opportunity to see a large portion of the United States and the countries of Europe: England, France, Spain, Austria, Italy, Switzerland and Denmark. A short trip to any of the following cities: London, Paris, Berlin, Rome, Vienna and Copenhagen would cost a civilian hundreds of dollars.

In contrast a soldier is paid while seeing Europe. Travel may be performed during week ends, while on 3-day passes or during the time that the soldier takes all or part of his 30-day annual vacation with pay.

Complete information about this special assignment, authorization and all the other advantages of a Regular Army enlistment can be obtained by writing, telephoning or visiting Sgt. Earl D. Black, at 419 Federal Building, Indianapolis. The telephone number is ME. 2-1561 Ex. 323.

This enlistment option expires May 1, 1956.

emphatically asserted. William M. Donaldson, 626 Douglass, owns the house and was renting the apartment to Mrs. Bryant for $22 a month.

Mr. Donaldson, approached by The Recorder, denied responsibility. He said a man who formerly rented the apartment, wired the place.

"Mrs. Bryant called up there several times complaining she had no lights," he stated, "but every time I went up there I got the lights working and there didn't appear to be anything wrong."

"Finally I told her I wasn't coming up there anymore," he said.

MRS. BRYANT, who told police and fire investigators she had been living without lights for almost a week, said she called the Indianapolis Power and Light Company, reporting her electrical troubles.

The condition of the wiring put the house in imminent danger of fire. Mrs. Bryant was told by a company troubleshooter who came out and looked the place over. He also advised her to hire a licensed electrician to make the necessary repairs.

Mrs. Bryant said she fed her children and put them to bed, and then went to the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hines, 702 Blake, Apt. 177, to try to contact an electrician by telephone. Mrs. Bryant had a third child, Sarita, age 3, whose father is the son of Mrs. Hines.

Donald Bryant, the woman's 26-year-old husband is serving a sentence for burglary on the Indiana State Farm.

Before Mrs. Bryant could make connections with an electrician, she was notified to "come home, your house is on fire."

THE YOUNG MOTHER, who said she was only away from home a few minutes, rushed home and became hysterical when notified her children were still in the house.

Firemen battered the door of the apartment down, but were not able to reach the tots until the flames had been subdued. Both children were completely covered with third-degree burns.

Porteous Boyd, 71, who lived in the front of the house, said Mrs. Bryant had been away from home "for more than an hour." He also stated, "It wasn't the first time she left her children by themselves."

Mr. Boyd's son and daughter-in-law, Johnny, 27, and Marian Boyd, live there also. Marian Boyd was in the kitchen cooking when she smelled smoke and notified the men.

The Boyds went to the bathroom which serves both theirs and the Bryant apartment and smashed down the door which led to the room where the children were. Flames leaped out and drove the men back, thwarting their rescue attempt.

Mrs. Bryant was unemployed and was living on an $81-a-month check she received from the Marion County Welfare.

CHURCH CANDIDATE: Rev. G. Alexander Brooks, pastor of Caldwell Chapel, is a candidate for the position of secretary-treasurer of the Pension, Relief and Missions department of the AMEZ Church at the General Conference meeting in Pittsburgh May 2-15 to which he is a delegate.

Rev. Brooks conducts a radio program each Sunday morning from his 11 o'clock service.

Court's Ruling

uation created by the anti-bus situation ruling was fluid in some instances and rigid in most, the pattern remaining unchanged at present.

In most instances, newsmen reported both Negroes and whites seemed reluctant to break the old custom, although drivers in some cities have been instructed not to enforce segregation further.

THE STATES seemingly most determined to continue the segregation practices of many years, in the public transportation as well as the school areas are Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi, where authorities maintain the Supreme Court has usurped the constitutionally granted right of the states to regulate their own affairs.

Florida and Louisiana have recently joined the three die-hard states in a determination to enforce all forms of racial segregation in public as well as private areas.

The case before the Supreme Court which it decided Monday arose from a suit for damages brought against the Columbia bus system by a Negro woman who charged a driver had forced her to leave the bus when she refused to move to the section reserved for Negroes.

Her lawyers contended that the South Carolina segregation law was unconstitutional on the basis of the 14th Amendment which was upheld by the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals on July 1, 1955, and which the U. S. Supreme Court refused to even review as it announced Monday, thus letting the decision stand.

LAST NOVEMBER the Interstate Commerce Commission ordered an end to segregation on interstate buses, trains and in waiting rooms used by interstate passengers.

The latest action of the high tribunal was the first of its kind holding intrastate travel segregation unconstitutional.

AMEZ's Prepare For General Conference

The General Conference of the AMEZ Church will be held at Wesley Center AMEZ Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., May 2 through 16. Host bishop will be William C. Brown, Brooklyn, N. Y., and host pastor, Rev. Charles C. Foggie.

Among notables scheduled to address the conference are Roy Wilkins, general secretary of the NAACP; Congressman C. Diggs, Detroit; Dr. Robert S. Bilheimer, associate general secretary of the World Council of Churches; Bishop Ivan Lee Holt, St. Louis, bishop of the Methodist Church and president of the World Methodist Council; Governor George M. Leader of Pennsylvania and Richard M. Nixon, vice-president of the U. S.

One of the big items to command attention of the delegates is election of possibly three bishops to fill vacancies caused by deaths of three prelates during the past four years.

Wesley Center Church was host to the general conference in 1932 and has grown to its present membership of 2,612. Its building and parsonage are debt free.

the ceremony featured a four-tiered wedding cake and punch. The couple have no plans for an immediate honeymoon.

MRS. FOSTER explained that her husband has taken too much time from his studies, but said they are considering a trip to Michigan or Canada later in the year.

The groom is a social science student at Butler College in Tyler, Tex., and is pastor of two churches.

When asked about their future plans, Mrs. Foster said she intends to renew her fight to enter the University of Alabama in the fall. She was admitted to the school, then expelled after mob demonstrations protesting her admission.

The couple will live in Tyler, and Foster does not plan to accompany his wife if she returns to Alabama in the fall.

Mrs. Foster said she might consider entering the University of Texas to work on a degree in library science if she is unsuccessful in her attempts in Alabama.

Enters Governor Race

Frank H. Sparks, former Wash College president announced last Saturday that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor.

The long expected decision by the prominent Indiana industrialist came after he had toured the state conferring with GOP leaders.

Already in the gubernatorial contest are: Lt. Gov. Harold W. Handley, State Revenue Commissioner Frank T. Millis, Dan Craven, former member of the Alcoholic Beverage Commission and Francis McCarty, Brimfield manufacturer.

The nomination will be made at the GOP state convention June 29.

Cole Joins NAACP

DETROIT — Singer Nat (King) Cole, backed up earlier statements that he is all for the NAACP by purchasing a $500 life membership in the crusading organization this week.

The popular musician told Roy Wilkins this week that he's in accord with the work of the NAACP and "will cooperate to the fullest extent with the work you are doing to help our causes."

Cole had been severely criticized by many Negro artists leaders and laymen after published reports quoted him as saying, following the attack made on him by six men in Birmingham during his appearance there at a concert that he would not support the NAACP.

"They (newspapers) were utterly wrong in saying that," he said.

Thought Control Sharp contrasts in community attitudes was furnished incidents in two states this week.

A group of residents—110—of Jefferson County, Ky., petitioned the Franklin Circuit Court to enforce the Kentucky law which forbids racial integration in public schools.

The suit charges the Supreme Court "usurped the legislative powers of the states" when it outlawed segregation.

Some 1,300 residents of Chapman and Urbana used full page ads in two newspapers to affirm "our faith in an unsegregated community."

The ads declared that "the plight of Americans denied human and constitutional rights have shocked us into re-examining our own practices."

Funds for the ads were raised by a group of 50 residents, who campaigned through churches.

Robert Gilliam Honored For Church Service

ROBERT D. GILLIAM

Robert D. Gilliam was the honored guest on a program at Simpson Methodist Church, Friday, April 20.

The program was aimed at honoring all persons who have been active members of Simpson Church 35 years or more.

Approximately 200 persons, attending the reception dinner, heard glowing tributes paid Mr. Gilliam, "as a man of character, a Christian gentleman, a Christian citizen and a church man who lives God and obhows evil."

Now 74 years old, Mr. Gilliam has served faithfully, earnestly and continuously as a Simpson member for the past 53 years. For a number of years he was a member of the Steward Board and was one of those who helped organize the Usher Board.

His completely devoted service to his church includes his work as president of the Men of Simpson, member of the finance commission of the church and his efforts in helping organize the Men's Chorus of the church.

Coming to Indianapolis in 1903, he soon thereafter was employed as a Red Cap at Union Station where he remained until his retirement in 1948. During his employment he served many years as supervisor of a group of 32 men under him. A number of railroad employees were present at the dinner.

During his active career Mr. Gilliam helped form the Prayer Band out of which the Senate Avenue YMCA was founded.

MR. GILLIAM's service to his church and community was recited by Rev. J. Inman Dixon, Simpson pastor, and an honorarium, approximately $120, was presented him by George Ransaw, lay leader at Simpson.

Special guests who brought greetings included Attorney Frank R. Beckwith, Dr. Benjamin A. Osborne and Harry Harper.

Citation of the honored members was made by Mrs. John A. Patton and each presented a scroll by Mrs. Candis Barnhill, chairman of the committee on senior members.

The appreciation program was originated and promoted by the Courtesy Committee of Simpson, of which Mrs. Paul A. Batties is chairman.

OTHER MEMBERS include: Rev. and Mrs. J. Inman Dixon; Mesdames Nellie V. Rogers, Cora P. Rawls, Orville Grant, Forrest Littlejohn, Lutie Lee Moore, M. V. Dullin, Leatha Sturdivant, Lucy Booker, Edna Collins, B. Ethel White, Cary D. Jacobs and Asa Sawyer.

Also members are, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Overstreet, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Waits, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lytle, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Glover.

Others are George Ransaw and Charles Kelley.

P.T.A. Notes

The P.T.A. of Crispus Attucks high school is sponsoring its annual carnival Friday evening from 6 to 10 in the boys' gym, featuring fun for the entire family.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown is president, and Dr. Russell A. Lane is principal.

The School No. 32 P.T.A. elected as officers for the coming year Mesdames Katherine Bailey, president; Leonard Lawrence, vice-president; Albert Umphrey, secretary; and Elizabeth Klepinger, treasurer. They were installed by Mrs. Leonard Pearson of the Indianapolis Council of Parents and Teachers.

"Respect for All Work" is the title of the annual spring exhibit at School No. 37, planned May 2-25 by the school's P.T.A.

Opening the exhibit will be a special program next Wednesday night at 7:45, with R. C. Clark, staff associate in public relations with the Eli Lilly Company, will be speaker, and music will be furnished by the junior high school band and chorus. Open house will be held from 7:30 to 8.

ATTEND BUSINESS CLINIC: S. Henry Bundles, sales representative of Indianapolis Walker Manufacturing Company, joined with those of other major companies of the country in a national clinic sponsored by the National Association of Market Developers at Tennessee State A. & I. University, Nashville. Shown in the picture are, left to right, Raymon Scruggs, Michigan Bell Telephone Co.; John O. Montgomery, Chrysler Corp., public relations director; S. Henry Bundles, Walker, Manufacturing Company; Lewis Martin, Chicago Defender Publications; Charles P. Noaman, sales manager, Chrysler Division, Chrysler Corp., Detroit; Lewis R. Holland, head of the business administration department at Tennessee State University.

Mr. Bundles' participation in the conference was seen as another indication of the forward steps being taken by the Walker Company to develop a sales program that will ultimately bring better service to the thousands of customers who use Walker products.

Civil Rights Bills Get Nowhere, Fast

WASHINGTON (AP)—Civil rights measures were the object of much congressional discussion last week, but when it was all over, the proposed bills ended right where they started—in the House Judiciary committee.

First action was taken by that committee, which voted 14-13 early in the week to return the bills to the subcommittee. The subcommittee promptly passed them and returned them to the full committee.

There was also some Senate action on civil rights proposals. Senator James O. Eastland, chairman of the Judiciary Committee, announced this week that hearings would soon be held on the administration's civil rights proposals and other civil rights measures pending before the committee.

The hearings, which will be scheduled "in the near future" will be conducted by the full 15-member committee, said the Mississippi Senator.

Among the dozen civil rights bills pending are anti-lynch measures, anti-poll tax proposals, recommendations to set up a civil rights commission, bills to establish a civil rights division in the Justice Department and measures to protect the voting rights of citizens.

It was conceded, however, that chances are slim for action on the Administration's proposals in this Congress.

TERRE HAUTE—Homer Benson, parole officer at the U. S. Penitentiary, was invited to attend the National Conference on Parole, called by Attorney-General Herbert Brownell, Jr., in Washington, D. C., April 9-11.

The conference's three-fold purpose was to evaluate existing parole standards and practices, to promulgate and publish manual and guide material on parole principles and practices which will be of practical value to public officials and citizens who are leaders in the improvement of their parole systems and to focus nationwide attention upon the importance of parole in the control of delinquency and crime.

On Monday evening, April 9, there was a reception for delegates and their wives given by Mr. and Mrs. Brownell and the National Probation and Parole Association's president, George W. Smith, and Mrs. Smith at Anderson House.

Conference speakers were Scofield Richardson, chairman of the U. S. Board of Parole; the Honorable Earl Warren, chief justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, who gave the keynote address; James V. Bennett, director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons; Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI; and the Honorable Bolitha J. Laws, chief judge with the U. S. District Court at Washington, in addition to

A buffet supper was served. In addition to those already named, present were Mesdames Ruth Cox, Daisy Gholston, Mary E. Montgomery and Isabelle Newsome. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Mary E. Montgomery.

Mrs. Geneva Adams received the luggage in a recent social sponsored by the club. The Wesleyan club of Second Methodist Church met Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Godwin. Arrangements were completed for the "Royal Tea" to be held Sunday. Reports were given of program activities for the next three months by the committee, of which Mrs. Delores Jack is chairman.

Written contests for the evening were conducted by Mr. Godwin, and prize-winners were Mesdames Jack and Betty Streaty. Refreshments were served. Present were Messrs. and Mesdames James W. Bailey, Eugene Frank Brown and Julius Streaty, Mesdames Juanita Berry and Delores Jack, Miss Rowena LaRue, Rev. J. Parrish Bell and Loyce Landers.

For the next meeting, set for Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyce Landers, each member is to bring a news item of current interest for the program period.

Prominent Evansville Teacher Dies; School Holds Memorial Services

By WILLIE EFFIE THOMAS

LA BAKER'S SWAN SONG: After years of supreme triumph on the American and French music hall stages, Josephine Baker, famous American-born singer and dancer, retired after a farewell performance before a Paris audience Tuesday night. She plans to return with her husband to her French country home. She is shown here greeting three of the seven orphans she has adopted. They include children of Negro, Chinese and French origin, and other nationalities.

EVANSVILLE — The community-at-large was saddened recently by the death of Mrs. Grace McFarland Moore, rated as one of the city's most outstanding teachers. Holder of an A. B. degree from Indiana State Teachers College and the M. A. from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, she had trained student teachers for Evansville College for a number of years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, April 18, at the Johnson Memorial Chapel, with Dr. Arthur L. Jelkes, pastor of Alexander AME Church, officiating. Other ministers assisting were Revs. Carolyn E. Bell, M. D. Banks, and Frank Edwards, pastor of Mayfield Baptist Church.

The Alexander Church choir furnished music, and soloists were Lorraine Cunningham and Leroy Strowder. Miss Margaret Ann Porter played the organ procession and recessional.

Burial was in Oak Hill cemetery. Memorial services for Mrs. Moore were held the preceding afternoon at the Chestnut-Walnut school. Remarks were made by the principal, Alfred D. Wiley, and Darlene Malone gave a reading.

Allouise Jaxon and Maria Person sang a duet, music was played also by Mrs. Nadine Dixon, and Miss Julia E. Ingram played the postlude.

Dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Moore was a three-act operetta "Cinderella's Slipper," presented by lower grade pupils of the school last Thursday night and Friday afternoon.

The cast included Marian Kenner, Sharon Short, Cherry Gillis, Brenda Vaughn, Barbara Sander, Sylvia Gill, Sandra Barnett, Phyllis Smith, Margaret Lockridge, Beulah Cabell, Richard Johnson, Lawrence Chisler, Dennis Norman.

Members of the Evansville Association of College Women and the Women's Progressive club chartered a bus to attend the annual meeting of the Southern District of the Indiana State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, held at Bloomington last Sunday.

"YOUTH DAY" was observed last Sunday afternoon at First Baptist Church with a special program. Theme of the observance was the adage, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

Mrs. Vivian I. Eldridge was general chairman, and Mrs. Alma Winter was co-chairman. Following a political trend, the program featured a "Republican Party" with Mrs. Iolene Wilson, Sunshine Band leader, as chairman and a "Democratic Party," of which Mrs. Equilla Warfield, Red Circle leader, was chairman.

Mrs. Ora K. Glass is chairman of the Christian board of education, Mrs. Ruby Harrison is secretary, and Mrs. Willie Mary Brown is youth organizer. Rev. T. R. Brown is pastor.

Funeral services for Mrs. Samantha Edwards were held recently at Lost Creek Baptist Church, with burial in Stewart cemetery.

The afternoon address was given by Joseph Samuels, while Delores Sutton and Barry Anderson were in charge of the offering. Remarks were made by the pastor, Ushers for the afternoon were Delores Anderson and James Bulard.

A packed church of appreciative members and friends witnessed the inspirational services of the youth under the leadership of Rev. Hord, the church has grown tremendously, with 50 percent of the membership being young people.

TEACHERS AND STUDENTS of the Booker T. Washington school are busy rehearsing numbers for the spring festival to be held Friday, April 27, at 9 in the school auditorium. Songs and dances will be featured by the individual rooms. Students of the upper grades will present special numbers.

John Williams, former student at the Washington school and now a flight engineer in the Air Force, gave an interesting talk to members of the sixth grade recently. He gave descriptive accounts of his experience in Alaska, Germany and other parts of the world and also described various types of aircraft found in the Air Force.

A play "A Visit with Job" is to be presented Friday night at Lost Creek AME Church by the Lost Creek Community Young People's Forum.

Included in the cast are Hayes Russell, Maggie Barnett, Geraldine Martin, Warren Barbour, Norman Ross, Howard Edwards, Jr., Virgil Ross, Marva Jean Batton, Delores J. Batton, Shirley Phillips, Mary Ann Barnett, Glen Barnett, Selena Russell and Marilyn Russell.

Morton Lewis is director. Funeral services for Mrs. Samantha Edwards were held recently at Lost Creek Baptist Church, with burial in Stewart cemetery.

Miss Josephine Alexander gave the invocation for the afternoon session, and the welcome address, given by Mrs. Mary Gray, was responded to by Mrs. Candice Martin of Vincennes.

Miss Wanda Dampier, state supervisor of the National Association of Colored Girls, presented the Junior NAGC, and Mrs. Edna Ison, district president, introduced the state president, Mrs. C. B. Johnson of Gary, who was principal speaker.

Musie was furnished by Mrs. Laurence Carter of Evansville and Mrs. Velma Stone, soloists; Miss Anice Deal, violinist; Marvin Chandler, the men's chorus of the church and the district body, which

Services for Henry Lee Burford, 74, 342 Patterson, who died April 13 in General hospital, were held April 17 at the Jacobs Brothers Westside Chapel with burial in Floral Park.

Born in Dixon Springs, Tenn., he lived here 40 years and was a member of Allen Chapel AME Church. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mary L. Burford; three sisters, Mrs. Lucy Keith and Mrs. Rhoda Underwood of Indianapolis and Mrs. Elnora Belcher, Cleveland.

Masons Set Up Program Of Public Education

(Hoosier Negro Masons are celebrating their centennial in Indianapolis in the month of August and since they are aware of the fact that many people do not understand the use of the term "Prince Hall" Masons, they have set up a committee to educate the public.)

A committee composed of Andrew Ramsey, Lawson Slaughter, Fred Barker, Robert Hill and Hubert Hamilton, was set up last fall by the Hoosier Negro Masons, who are celebrating the centennial of the following article on the life of Prince Hall, the founder of legitimate Negro masonry in the United States was written by Lawson Slaughter a few days before his death in January of this year.)

Prince Hall

By LAWSON E. SLAUGHTER

The history of Freemasonry in our race is a record of man at his best, devoting faith, energy and fortune to the proposition that all men are the creatures of one Almighty Parent and that selfless service to our fellows is the pathway to Him.

It has long been the universal cry "Give us leaders we can safely follow." Bridgetown, Barbados, British West Indies gave us such a leader in Prince Hall. But to understand the mettle of a man, it is necessary to know his background, from whence he came, the problems he has conquered on the way and something of his failures too.

Prince Hall was born in Bridgetown, Barbados British West Indies, September 12, 1748. His father was an Englishman, Thomas Prince Hall, a leather worker, and his mother was a free colored woman of French extraction.

Little is known of his parents except that they were in humble circumstances and had a reputation for piety, sobriety and industry, which qualities were transmitted to their son. It is well to digress here to emphasize that Prince Hall came of free parents and was not a slave, although slavery existed in this part of the world at that time.

This digression is justified at this point because when Masonry became the subject of bitter controversy, its opponents adduced the alleged "free-born" qualification, charging that Prince Hall's initiation was invalid. Its sponsors have assumed that all colored men in America during the colonial period were slaves and hence not eligible to Masonry.

THE MEAGRE OUTLOOK for his father's trade, to which he was early apprenticed, did not suit the bounding ambition of Prince Hall. At the age of 17, he worked his passage on a sailing vessel bound for Boston and March, 1765 he arrived there. He immediately set to work at his trade.

There are many reasons why Prince Hall chose Boston as his future home. I presume the primary one was, in Boston there was a large colony of free colored people and he had seen enough of the horrors of slavery in the islands. His lessons in thrift were evidently not forgotten, for at the age of 25 he had acquired some real estate and was qualified to teach. He took private lessons at night and thus remedied defects in his education. He became an earnest student of the Bible, became a member of the Methodist Church and later a preacher with a charge at Cambridge.

In his personal appearance he was rather short (5 ft. 3 inches), fair complexion and slight of build, but his physique did not deter him from engaging in hard work nor interfere with a wide range of activities, for he was a man of tireless energy.

In 1768 he married Phoebe Barker, Prince Hall's natural qualities, his superior educational attainments and his position in the church made him a leader of the colony of free colored men in Boston and its vicinity. He also had a close acquaintance with and the respect and esteem of prominent leaders in the revolutionary movement then developing. No noble figure ever stood in the forefront of the cause. He was one of the first abolitionists. He never overlooked an opportunity to aid his less fortunate brethren. His activity was in the form of petitions and memorials to the Massachusetts assembly. He advocated citizenship for colored men, participation in government and equality before the law.

HE OPPOSED all forms of racial discrimination and was insistent on the protection of his people from social insult and indignity. He petitioned the Massachusetts Legislature to provide means for the education of colored youths and as a result schools were opened to his people in 1796. Prince Hall's name has gone down in the history of the colored race in America as being the first of his race to be initiated into the Masonic order in America. Later 14 other colored free men received the degrees of Masonry.

The initiation took place in Boston, March 17, 1775. The British army evacuated Boston on March 17, 1775. To enable their colored brethren to function, brother T. B. Batts, Master of the Army Lodge, left the city in a special permit as it was known during that period. This permit was issued under a well established custom of that day.

Later, Prince Hall petitioned the Grand Lodge of England, the mother of Free masonry, for a charter. On June 29, 1784 the Charter was granted constituting Prince Hall and his brethren into African Lodge No. 459 with Prince Hall as Worshipful Master, insuring the permanency, stability and future expansion of Masonry among colored men. On June 4, 1791, a general assembly of the Craft was held in Boston and African Grand Lodge was organized following ancient custom and usage. The meeting selected Prince Hall as Grand Master.

IN PRINCE HALL, Divine Providence found one worthy to share the fortunes of destiny. He was a man prepared for leadership. He had learned early to divest himself of all those qualities of life which so hinder man's usefulness and mute his testimony. There were no lurking shadows in his life. His record was an open book. He was made ready for his place in public life by conscious awareness of three Great Lights, under the influence of which he continuously labored. The lights were: First, the light of Conscience whereby one is given that sense of right and wrong which can always be trusted and is ever ready to be used by the Divine will for the furthering of His purpose.

Second, the light of Reason which throws its ray upon the path of all; but only those who follow in its wake learn the meaning of being used for a purpose greater than themselves to which they can fully give themselves.

Third, the light of Divine Providence upon which every life depends, if we are to know that God is God and that He and He alone is the supreme architect of our lives and destiny.

Some day when the clouds of prejudice have been dispelled by the search-light of Truth, the world will know Masonry for what it is supposed to be.

Recorder Writer Guest Speaker At Gary Church

GARY—Miss Willa M. Thomas, church columnist for The Recorder, was guest speaker Sunday for the missionary society of New Sardis Baptist Church.

A delegate to the Baptist World Alliance last summer in London, England, she spoke on her trip and the meeting. She served as a press representative while attending the meeting.

She is active in children's work and is field worker for the children's department of the Senior Women's National Baptist Convention of America.

Mrs. E. L. Baker is president of the missionary society, and Rev. E. L. Baker is church pastor.

Marks Birthday At Connersville

CONNERSVILLE—Phyllis Ann Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson, celebrated her birthday with a party recently. She received many gifts. Guests were Patty Lou Collier of Liberty and Teresa Jo and Stephanie Gibson, Pamela Craig, Shirley Ware, Birdie Jean Gibson, Evelyn Craig, Joe Ann Hayes, Lillie Crumes, Rose Mary Rogers, Debbie and Vickie Watkins, Brenda Greene and Deborah Lee Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson motored to Springfield with their family to visit his parents and friends.

Parents' Responsibility A long-Term Thing

Two articles of interest within the past week have brought to mind the consideration of parental responsibility. One was, of course, the tragedy of two small children who burned to death while their mother went to make a phone call; the other is the crack-down on "runaway pappies." Although we have nothing but the heartiest contempt for the fathers who shirk their responsibilities, we can feel sympathy with the mother—after all, most mothers at some time leave their children alone for a few moments.

But that, obviously, is exactly what they should not do! Most parents have said more than once, "The minute I take my eyes off that boy, he's into something." They don't seem to realize that their words are so very true, not only about the child "getting into something," about other circumstances which seem to choose the worst possible moment. A family can sit around an oil stove for hour after hour, then leave it alone for fifteen minutes to come back and find it merrily burning the house down. A worn electrical wire can keep carrying the current for months while the lady of the house is at but about other circumstances which seem to choose the period when the current is on and nobody's home.

Parents simply must learn that children too young to look after themselves should never be left alone, regardless of what the circumstances are. It is, admittedly, a nuisance to bundle up two or three tots and take them along on every shopping trip, every run down the street. It is, more admittedly, more than a nuisance to come home and find the dead.

Flowers in Bloom

Flowers in bloom, grass forming a carpet of green, a healthy tree pointing to the sky, clean yards, walks and alleys—these things tell the passerby what kind of people live in a neighborhood. They indicate that the people who have gone to the pains of making their homes and neighborhoods clean and attractive are people with some pride, people who care about surrounding themselves with simple beauty.

Until very recently, one of the staidest of the many self-deprecatory "sayings" among Negroes has been that "you can always tell where the colored people live." The unmistakable signs of unkempt lawns, straggly flowerbeds and littered yards and streets proclaimed loudly that a middle-class neighborhood was "colored." For some reason, the bulk of Negroes obviously did not care as much about the appearance of their homes as the whites on the same economic level.

Home-ownership no doubt made some difference, although not as much as some apologists like to believe. We have seen hundreds of homes occupied by owners who didn't go beyond cutting the grass every once in a while. On the other hand, we have seen renters carefully trimming lawns, planting flowers with some regard for appearance and otherwise working to make their yards beautiful.

Fortunately, more and more does one pass through "Black Belts" which appearance-wise are not distinguishable from "lily-white" neighborhoods. Evergreens are planted attractively around the house. Flowers are planted with such care that the yards are graced with blossoms from late March to early November. Smooth lawns are carefully trimmed, and hedges are even. The walks, porches and alleys are as clean as reasonable.

There is no reason why every neighborhood should not reflect the graciousness and gentility we all like to think we have. Cleanliness costs practically nothing, and even yard beauty can be maintained at negligible cost. Trash can be removed from every yard and alley. And even crabgrass can be cut.

South Africa and South USA, Awake!

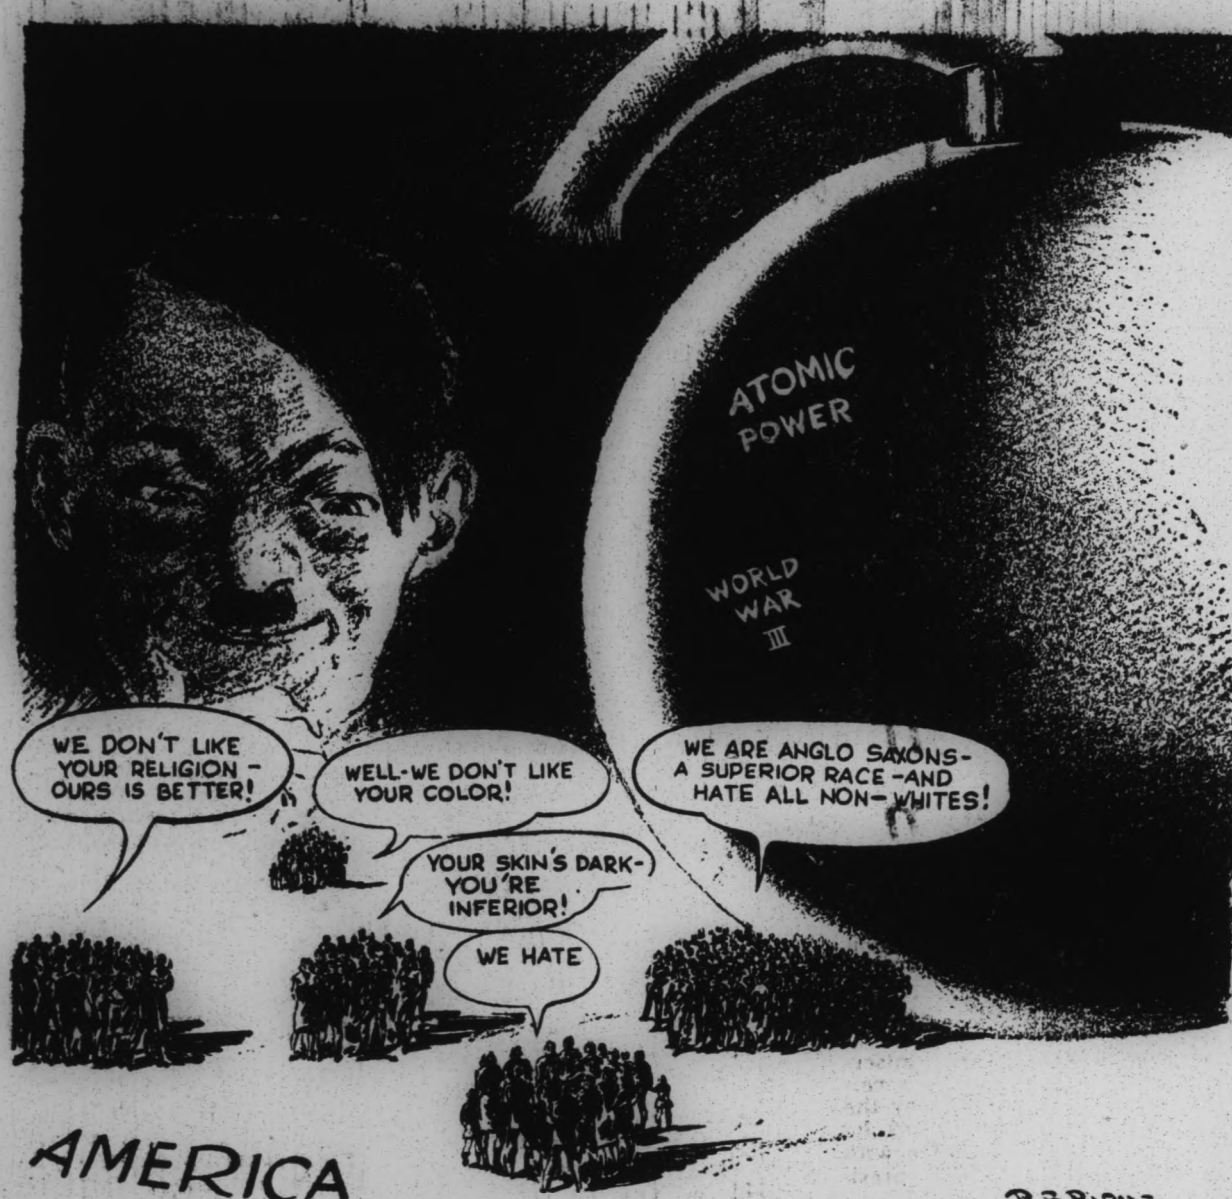

Rev. Trevor Huddleston, recently banished from South Africa for disobeying the law in educating natives, last week said there were strong indications of a "growing moral revolt" by South Africa's white intellectual leaders against the government's segregation policies. Fr. Huddleston, head of the South African branch of the Anglican Community of the Resurrection, is an outspoken opponent of the governmental segregation policies. He recently finished a five-week visit to this country before taking up new duties in England.

The Anglican priest said that intellectual leaders are "beginning to sense the complete isolation from the rest of Africa and from the whole world" which segregation is imposing upon the country. He mentioned the publication of a book by Dr. B. B. Keet, head of the Dutch Reformed Church's theological seminary near Cape Town, attacking the government's segregation policy as an attempt "to escape our Christian duty" and criticizing the Dutch Reformed Church in South Africa for supporting it.

At the same time, John Hughes, staff correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor, writing from Cape Town, said that "one most heartening sign about South Africa's color problem" is that "everyone is thinking about its solution." He pointed to the failure of the South African Bond party to achieve any great following in its efforts to bridge divergencies between the two white groups, Afrikaners and British. He also reminded the "Monitor" readers of what most of them already knew—that the government, after eight years in office, is finding it "increasingly impractical to achieve total territorial segregation and has indeed admitted that this is unattainable in its time."

Together, South Africa and South United States of America are proving what many keen minds realized a long time ago—that racism and segregationism cannot exist peacefully in an enlightened world. As long as there are people imbued with the love of education and teaching suppressed peoples, ideas of racial inequality are insecure. It should be obvious that only a race completely lacking in every quality of decency, honor or morality can subject or discriminate against another race successfully.

Had the American white man been just a little less decent on the whole, slavery would have continued unchallenged, and the millions who are now black Americans would still be chattel. If "good" men would keep out of South Africa, the Dutch government would have no problem. It thus appears that the only way to keep peace in South Africa is methodically to kill off all the decent-minded white men and those blacks who have received a little learning and realize that God did not create them to be a race apart. We cannot suggest how best to go about this, and since Hitler is presumably dead, we cannot even refer the South African government to any experts for advice. It may be that the government will just have to take the easy way out—join the "good" men and forget the whole apartheid mess.

Right Supports The Arabs

The whole of the civilized world is apprehensive lest war break out in the middle east as a result of the impasse in Jewish-Arab relations.

And since official American policy favors the cause of Israel, to criticize our official attitude in the present conflict is one open to the charge of being opposed to our foreign policy in a war when disagreement is suspect.

Nevertheless, this writer with no thought of either disloyalty or anti-Semitism, is forced to take the side of the Arab states up to a certain point in the present crisis.

This is not a new attitude on the part of this columnist. IT IS UNDERSTANDABLE that the Jews who have been welded into a more or less unified people by centuries of persecution and segregation would take to the idea of a national homeland to bolster their growing sense of nationalism.

It is equally understandable how the United States, moved to compassion by the ruthless slaughter of Jews by Hitler's Nazi regime, and wishing to save its own conscience because of its very real but unpublicized endemic anti-Semitism, threw its moral, economic and military might into the campaign to establish a home for displaced Jews in Palestine.

The Jews wished to set up this home in the ancient land of Palestine because, they claim, it was rightfully theirs by virtue of the fact that it was the homeland of their forefathers over two thousand years ago.

To this anachronistic logic the do-gooders of the United States and other so-called Christian lands fell easy victims.

ONLY THE ARAB world seemed to be in opposition, but it was overruled by the weight of the opinions of the nations with the largest armies and navies, and the practically unnamed Arab states had to admit defeat.

But the Arab nations, led by Egypt, are no longer the weaklings that they were eight years ago and, though denied arms by the nations of the "free world, they have entered into some sort of deal with the Iron Curtain countries for material of war.

Our government has warned them that accepting favors from the Russians is courting domination, but the hard-headed Moslem states insist that Judge not, and ye shall not be judged; condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned; forgive, and ye shall be forgiven. —(St. Luke 6, 37.)

When we pray God for forgiveness, do we first in our hearts forgive those we feel have wronged us? Do we judge and condemn others for errors and shortcomings without confessing our own? Let us always remember what Christ Jesus said of the greatest virtue—charity.

they want no part of Communism and that they can defend themselves against Communist indoctrination.

They frankly admit that since they could not buy arms from the United States or Britain they simply turned to a source amenable to their suggestion.

To explain why this columnist regards the Jews as wrong and the Arabs right in the conflict, it is necessary to look into the validity of the contentions of rival peoples.

FIRST THE JEWS.

Jewish historians boast of the fact that the Jews were led to the borders of the "promised land" by Moses and that they were forced to wrest the land from the people who were then living there.

They obtained this homeland by right of conquest. They lost it in the same manner.

To claim it on that basis over two thousand years later makes just as much sense as their returning to and occupying the ancient land of Ur of the Chaldees whence Abraham supposedly came.

By the same right England could claim a part of France-Brittany—from which the ancestors of millions of Englishmen came less than two thousand years ago.

It makes as much sense as sending American Negroes back to Africa that most of them have never seen. In addition Zionism is compounded of voluntary segregation in an era when the world moves toward integration.

THE ARABS on the other hand are up in arms because Palestine had been the homeland for centuries and their thousands of Arabs were uprooted from their homes in order that Jews might take them without a care about what was to become of the displaced persons.

These homeless Arabs have become economic problems in the neighboring Arab states. The nations who participated in the setting up of the states of the Israeli were themselves, because of more than a trace of anti-Semitism, glad to see them in a land that did not belong to them.

Because it had belonged to their ancestors gave them no more claim on it than the fact that one's grandfather once owned a certain farm gives one a clear title to that farm today.

The establishment of Israel may have solved a few problems, but it created at least as many as it solved and it left the majority of Jews in lands where anti-Semitism abounds.

It was the fruit of Jewish nationalism and the seed of Arab nationalism, creating another area of tension in a world that already had too many.

The main question is not Jewish rights or Arab rights but human rights.

Montgomery-Heaven Helps Those Who Help Themselves

I wonder if among American Negroes generally the worm will begin to turn as it appears to be turning in Montgomery, Alabama. Are colored people on the verge of understanding that "who would be free themselves must strike the blow"?

Are we just beginning to grasp the hint Lincoln gave us 93 years ago in the Emancipation Proclamation, in which he said: "The Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval officers thereof . . . will do no act or acts to repress such persons or any of them in any efforts they may make for their actual freedom."

Was Louisiana-born G. W. Cable correct 60 years ago in urging Negroes to insist on their rights? Do you agree with the late President Harding, who told a Negro delegation: "If you colored people want your rights you will have to get them yourselves."

THE ABOVE is not to be understood as urging ill-advised action of any kind. I long have felt and still feel that anyone who encourages racial ill-will should be regarded as being a public enemy.

The Negroes of Montgomery are wise in doing nothing illegal and striving to avoid violence. They do not want trouble but are prepared to meet it manfully if it is forced on them.

That Negroes in many states are helping the Montgomery people in a material way is an encouraging development which, it is to be hoped, may indicate that the long-desired unity now is at least a possibility.

I have read numerous statements from white people who do not approve southern outrageous treatment of Negroes, but I know of but one instance of white approval of what Montgomery Negroes are doing being shown by doing something to help them in their efforts to get civilized consideration.

THAT INSTANCE is: On March 24, 1956, The Asbury Park Press (N. J.) Evening Press published the following telegram to Rev. Martin Luther King, leader of the Montgomery bus boycott:

"We of the Asbury Park Press, outraged at the conviction of a fellow American for asserting a right our Constitution guarantees to all, want to help you in your fight for justice. We are starting a fund drive among our readers for money to pay your fine and court costs.

"The Press itself is contributing $50. Checks will be drawn in your name and forwarded to you or to your attorneys if you prefer."

Editor Wayne D. McMurray sent the telegram, using nearly all of column one on page one to announce his aim to raise money for the Montgomery minister, the headline in large letters being: "PRESS STARTS FUND TO HELP CLERGYMAN."

It will be seen in the following quotation from an EVENING PRESS editorial titled "A FUND TO ELIMINATE SECOND CLASS CITIZENSHIP" that Editor McMurray regards the treatment of Doctor King as bringing dishonor not only on the entire state of Alabama but on the whole country as well:

"THIS NEWSPAPER has long opposed segregation. It is un-American and un-democratic. No democracy can tolerate first and second class citizens. In a democracy all citizens are equal before the law and are entitled to the same rights in public places. Any other order of things is ridiculous.

"This newspaper feels that the treatment accorded the Rev. Dr. King is a disgrace to the state of Alabama which must, in part, be shared by the whole country. We would like to help Dr. King pay his fine and we are today donating fifty dollars to that cause. "We trust that many of our readers will agree with our viewpoint and contribute to this fund. Those who desire to do so should send their checks to this office drawn to the order of MARTIN LUTHER KING and we will see that they reach him in Alabama.

"If the Rev. Dr. King eventually wins an acquittal and the fine and costs are revoked, all the money raised by the Press may be used by him to help pay costs of the legal battle."

This accounts for his futility and frustration.

A great writer in a general sense has noted that customs or traditions have fostered in this individual a manner of double-consciousness. Of this double-consciousness he said, "this sense of always looking at one's self through the eyes of others, of measuring one's soul by the tape of a world that looks on with amused contempt and pity," is a peculiar sensation.

Perhaps there is hope. In the religious world not so long ago it was held that we (Negro people) constitute the last real spiritual reserve in our land, and our duty is to glorify that spirituality, not emasculate it. Seemingly some place between all these wise people there is a big hole. And today we face the greatest challenge of all times in making people of African ancestry or background susceptible to the full spirit of human dignity and acceptable to themselves—in the immediate aftermath.

Bringing together in spiritual or ideal wholeness all the people in our land of all ethnic origins or backgrounds is necessary if we shall keep our engagements with destiny. It follows every individual must be secure in benefits of labor or trade, property-rights and aspirations arrayed around the home, family, education, appreciation and tolerance, religion and justice in the spirit and letter of the U. S. Constitution.

No individual must be denied or suppressed in aspirations for a role of respect and leadership, or as a faithful trustee in our way of life. The virtue of the truly brave, the skill of the competent and the manners of the self-sustained and contented arrayed in this fashion may be over-matched in echoes of despair or strife from other areas of the earth.

Voice of The People

There Is Yet Opportunity

Let's first be men and women of good character seekers. Oh, God, help us we pray to find a place in the world. Can it be found? Yes, if we have faith and work to that end. We of the High School graduates are going to the top, and we hope all others will follow.

First, we must be men and women of character and intellect, and personality depends in part upon the training that the school and home will give us, requires a study by us workers of our own talents and interests and thoughtful investigation.

Occupation is very important to our community as well as to the individual. It is at the beginning perseverance and good judgment in finding a position. We must be faithful to our work, and steadily make ourselves qualified for a greater responsibility, and the door of opportunities will open for us if we be men and women of character.

Oh, God, help us we pray to find a place in the world. Edward L. DeJournett, Indianapolis.

DASHING INDIAN INFELD: This hustling infield of the promising Indianapolis Indians will really be working when the home club returns Monday for a series in which it hopes to get back up near the front of the pennant trail.

Tribe Returns Home Monday Hoping For Sunshine, Breaks

Manhandled last week by Old Man Weather, Our Indianapolis Indians, who dropped three of four games to Denver and Omaha, sought fairer weather and a few breaks as they took to the road this week.

Idle Monday and Tuesday, the Indians were scheduled in St. Paul Wednesday and Thursday and Minneapolis Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

THE TRIBE WILL BE BACK at Victory Field Monday night to battle St. Paul in the first Ladies' Night of the season. Game time is 7:45 and ladies are admitted for a mere 35-cent service charge.

It'll be a four-day stand for St. Paul here, with the final game scheduled for Thursday.

Minneapolis comes in Friday, Saturday and Sunday with a double-header Sunday. Afternoon games are Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. Night games are Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

Saturday afternoon is Kid's Day when youngsters 14 years and under are admitted free.

ALL THE INDIANS NEEDED last week was a slight smile from the weatherman and a couple of those things known around the sports world as breaks.

They dropped two by only a hair, both 8-7. However, that one they played last Saturday against Denver simply got completely out of hand and the Bears humbled our team 13-8.

Throughout spring training the releases from Florida kept pointing to the smooth fielding of this rookie Indian club, and poor hitting was often mentioned. But here with the chips on the line, the fielding has taken a nosedive and the hitting has exploded beyond Manager Kerby Farrell's fondest hope.

The team collected 46 hits in the four games played last week. That's 11.5 per game. And that should spell victory.

Owens Bush, the general manager, says it does spell victory. He said the boys are young and green for the most part but they are becoming more seasoned each game.

He said the team is rapidly approaching a stage where winning will be common.

CAMPY GETS 1,000th HIT

BROOKLYN, N. Y. (CNS)—Roy Campanella got his 1,000th hit in all of his career in baseball, and he earned it in the best possible fashion. It came as a clutch hit in the top of the tenth inning so that Campy helped his team to beat the Phillies in their second game of the season, and first win for the Dodgers.

Otto Graham, Bo Bollinger Speak Here Sat.

Otto Graham, Bo Bollinger and Bill Glass, all former college All-American football players, will speak to high school and college athletes and coaches Saturday afternoon in the Claypool Hotel.

GRAHAM is the fabulous quarterback of the world champion Cleveland Browns who starred at Northwestern University. Bollinger was twice All-American guard at Oklahoma and Bill Glass was a star at Baylor.

The appearance of the world-famous athletes is part of the National Christian Athletic Movement sponsored by the Christian Ministerial Association.

Rev. Roe Johnston, pastor of First Presbyterian Church at 16th and Delaware, himself an All-American end at the U. S. Naval Academy in 1943, will introduce the speakers.

BILLY THOM, former wrestling promoter who is director of athletics in the state institutions, is in charge of the program.

Jackie Still In Uniform --- But!

NEW YORK—Jackie Robinson is still wearing the Brooklyn Dodgers' uniform, and he's still stationed at third base (Tuesday, any way), but that's about all.

Last week Jackie made a miserable showing in the statistics column. He was booed lustily by the Jersey City, N. J., fans, and he was in a heated word battle with Buzzy Bavasi, Dodger vice president.

Always a guy to speak his mind, Jackie said: "You can take these Jersey fans and give 'em back to the Giants."

"I WON'T PLAY 24 games here," he added, referring to the fact that the Dodgers are committed to play 24 games at Jersey in three years.

Bavasi, hearing Jackie's remarks, exploded with: "The way he's playing, he won't have to worry about three years. He'll be out of there in three months."

On hearing Bavasi's quip, Jackie commented, "That's a helluva thing for him to say. I've been hustling hard and playing the best ball I can. If he doesn't like it, he can kiss my neck and sit down or trade me."

That "trade me" part brought immediate attention to the fact that Jackie almost was traded out of Brooklyn only a month or so ago.

Cubs' 'Tan Brigade' Leads Sweep of Series at Cincy

CHICAGO (ANP)—The Chicago Cubs' tan brigade—Sam (Emperor) Jones, Solly Drake, Monte Irvin, Ernie Banks and Gene Baker—were the big guns as the team took three straight victories from the Cincinnati Reds in the first series of the season at Wrigley Field.

Jones, the toothpick-chewing righthander, restricted the Reds to four hits and shut them out until the ninth inning to gain a 12-to-1 win. In the last frame, Frank Robinson, the Red's tan rookie outfielder, doubled and came home on a single.

Pitching brilliantly and twice escaping without a run when Cincy had the bases loaded, Jones walked four, struck out nine and used 144 pitches, an uncommonly few for him in a nine-inning stint.

Drake was sensational in his debut as a major leaguer in the series until a pulled muscle forced him out of action in the second game of a doubleheader Sunday. The fleet centerfielder collected two doubles, drove in a run and stole a base in the 12-to-1 win.

He also collected another double as the Cubs won 3-to-2 in an 11-inning game the next afternoon.

In the first game of a Sunday doubleheader, he smashed a 3-run home run as the Cubs won 5 to 4, defeating, incidentally, Joe Black.

IRVIN AND BANKS got home runs in that victory. Monte has looked very good in his comeback bid. In Jones' triumph, the veteran leftfielder contributed a homerun, double and single, driving in three runs and coming up with an acrobatic catch in the outfield. Banks got the Cubs winning in that game with a first-inning roundtripper. The shortstop's keystone mate, Baker, garnered a single and a double.

JUNIOR GILLIAM, stationed left field for the Brooklyn Dodgers, walked his second home run of the season in Pittsburgh's home opener—a blow that was good for two runs. Later, he delivered a bases-loaded single for two more RBIs as the Dodgers beat the Pirates, 5 to 0 at Forbes Field.

Charlie Neal, rookie second sacker for the Dodgers, got his first major league home run for the world champions' only tally in the second game of the series.

Boyd Beats Mims

CHICAGO—Bobby Boyd won an unpopular split decision over lightweight champion Holly Mims Wednesday night of last week here in the Stadium.

The victory was Boyd's tenth straight, giving him a solid hold on ranking as No. 2 contender for Sugar Ray Robinson's middleweight title.

MAYS BATTING ONLY .235 NEW YORK (CNS)—the Giants have hitting problems. Their big men—Alvin Dark, Willie Mays, Wes Westrum have a collective average of .177. Willie's going at a .235 clip and is second on the team with this batting average. Oh well, the season is only 4 games old.

Devils Get Relays Title But Tech "Cinch" In City

By JIM CUMMINGS and ROBERT GRIDER

The Big Green of Tech, which placed a miserable second behind strong Shortridge in the Indianapolis Relays last week, was a pen and pencil cinch to win the City Meet Friday of this week.

According to Recorder calculations, Tech would take firsts in the shot put, the half-mile relay, both the high and low hurdles, and firsts and seconds in both the dashes.

Shortridge, which compiled 77 points to Tech's 55 in the relays, figured to win only the half-mile, the broad jump, mile relay and the 440.

Attucks, which in the past two years has been making a steady rise in the track world, finished third in the relays with 49½ points, and would have finished second if their second-place mile relay team had not been disqualified, taking six points away from the Tiger total.

THE GREEN AND GOLD, with pretty good balance and the ability to score high in most events, was booked to maintain third place in the city meet.

Of course Oscar Robertson, who was edged for the high jump title last week by Shortridge's Bob Williams, was the favorite in the city event.

Ernie Gilcrease, who has been running a good mile this season appeared good for points here as well as in the half-mile which he could win if he regained his form that earned him the city title and a third in the state meet last year.

Shortridge fractured five records, including an all-time state mark in the two-mile relay, as seven records fell in the relays. They got new marks in the mile relay, distance medley, high jump and broad jump.

Jim Hill, the Satans' stellar sepiia middle-distance runner, was the big man in all three running efforts as he turned in half miles of 2:01.6 and 2:02 in the two-mile and distance medley. He also handled the third leg of that swift mile.

Clarence Baker, another sepiian, broad jumped 21' 5½", and Bob Williams, of basketball fame, high jumped 6' 3¼". Attucks' Mr. Robertson and Darrell Jacobs of Warren Central cleared 6.

Tech got a new mark as Larry Williams, Dick Mace, Freddie McCoy and Ray Carter stepped off a .446 quarter-mile.

The Green and Howe shared in a .392 shuttle hurdle relay record. With Don Brown, Fred Parrish, Glenn Howard and John Smith running, Attucks scored a first in a section of the half-mile in the fleet time of .454, only eight-tenths of a second off the new Tech record.

ATTUCKS COUNTED a first in a section of the half-mile also with Robertson, Smith, Howard and Brown kicking up the dust.

Scoring: Shortridge 77; Tech 55; Attucks 49½; Howe 48; Broad Ripple 40; Washington 30; Southport 28; Ben Davis 26; Warren Central 24½; Manual 18; Lawrence Central 14; Wood 2; Secцина 0.

Tigers Drop Dual Meet To Howe, 59-50

Attucks suffered a surprising setback at the hands of Howe in a dual meet Tuesday. The score was 59-50.

Ernie Gilcrease, the greatest middle-distance runner in Attucks' history, turned in a 4:34 mile, the fastest run this year by an Indianapolis boy. And it was only two seconds off the best state mile, this year.

DON BROWN won the 220 for the Tigers; Al Maxey was first in the high hurdles; Bill Brown scored a first in the shot put, and the Attucks half-mile relay team of Robertson, Brown, Smith and Howard won that event in 1:35.1. Oscar won the high jump with a leap of 6-1.

Gary Roosevelt Tops Goshen

GOSHEN—Gary Roosevelt, displaying tremendous team balance and amazing strength in the big-point relays, completely smashed a field of 13 and emerged with a huge total of 75 points and the school's sixth title in the 14th running of the Goshen Relays.

It was the Panthers' second straight win and their point total was the second highest ever recorded in the history of the event. Roosevelt scored 79 points as they won in 1951.

Roosevelt, coached by Bo Mallard, scored firsts in the sprint relay, the mile relay, the 120-yard high hurdles and broad jump and also set the day's only class A record.

RUFUS WILLIAMS, James Farr, John Davis and Willie Ballard raced the 440-yard relay in 45.2 seconds, to eclipse the three year-old mark.

Roosevelt's mile relay team of Jerome Mack, Randolph Williams, Hiawatha Burnett and James Piggett tied the 1955 record by doing the event in 3:28.6.

MISHAWAKA'S LEROY JOHNSON, who looks like a cinch to cop the state high jump championship this year, won a blue ribbon in his specialty with a leap of 6-1.

Charley Neal Clinches 2b Job

NEW YORK—With Charley Neal practically a cinch to keep the second base job with the Dodgers, and Chico Fernandez, capable Cuban shortstop standing ready to replace Pee Wee Reese, the Bums have seven Negroes on their roster.

Included of course, are Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella, Don Newcombe, Junior Gilliam and Sandy Amoros.

Tiger Jones Loses Another

CLEVELAND—Ralph Tiger Jones last week dropped another close decision when back-peddling Gene Fullmer was awarded a unanimous verdict.

As a result of the loss, Jones blew a probable chance to meet the winner of the Ray Robinson-Bobo Olson middleweight title scrap slated for San Francisco next month.

Hurricane TKO's Britisher In 4th

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson roared back into action last Friday, scoring a 4th round TKO over Johnny Williams, former British Empire heavyweight champion.

Jackson had the Britisher down twice in the third and once in the fourth as he slammed him with everything except the ring posts.

RECORD BUSTERS: The Tech quarter-mile relay foursome (top) and the Shortridge two-mile quartet (bottom) cracked two of the seven marks which fell during the Indianapolis Relays Friday of last week at Tech. The Tech boys stepped off the 440 in :44.6, one-tenth of a second under the meet mark and one-fifth of a second off the 27-year-old all-time Indiana state mark. Members are Larry Williams, Fred McCoy, Dick Mace and Ray Carter. The Satans set an all-time Indiana record in the two-mile event as they turned the distance in 8:16.7 to best the mark of 8:18.3 which has stood for 26 years. Members are Carl Carey, George Praed, Jim Hill and Bernie Finch. Recorder Photos by Jim Cummings).

MORE PROOF

Read how FLEISCHMANN'S higher Proof gives you more enjoyment at less cost!

To get more enjoyment in a whiskey, look at the "Proof." For "Proof" tells a whiskey's "strength." Today, most leading blends are no more than 86 Proof. But Fleischmann's is a full 90 Proof! And this means that you get more flavor—and enjoyment in every drink.

Whiskies are taxed by the U. S. Government on the basis of Proof. And although Fleischmann pays $1.03 more per case in taxes than ordinary 86 Proof blends, Fleischmann's costs you less than many lower Proof brands. Try Fleischmann's today—you'll agree that it's the best blended whiskey value in America!

FROM DOWN ALABAMA-WAY . . . James (Big Town) Mitchell sent us a fine scribe from Montgomery plus several clippings on the Nat (King) Cole affair in Birmingham . . . He also sent two membership cards to the Montgomery Improvement Association . . . One for the writer and one for the editor . . . Says Mr. Mitchell in his letter: "I am down here protesting with the boycott, and I am going to stay until the victory is won. This is a living hell on earth. We are still not riding the buses. They are still empty. The colored people are working and everybody that has a car and can put it in the carpool, are doing so. We have press men from all over the world that are standing by. (Part deleted) The good Lord is with us in our plan each and every day. In Birmingham the other night the KKK attacked Nat (King) Cole, and he was singing to about five to seven thousand people. He was born here in Montgomery. I will send you a copy of every thing that happens down here. We have a mass meeting twice a week, Monday and Thursday. We are going to fight until victory is gained. I am asking you and my friends to send us a donation to help fight this protest. Anything you send will be appreciated." Mr. Mitchell's address is 347 Kahn St., Montgomery, Ala.

WE ARE STILL WAITING . . . For those promotions in the police department . . . In fact they are over due . . . We do hope that you folks who are interested will keep your letters rollin' into the Mayor, Board of Safety and Police Chief Mueller . . . Negroes are being upgraded in police departments all over the country, and we see no reason why the same thing can't happen here. Keep those letters rollin' in, and we shall see what we shall see. A SWELL PARTY . . . Tuesday, April 17 was an auspicious day at the famous Club 11 . . . The day marked another birthday anniversary for Mrs. Nettie Benn, proprietress and hostess of the establishment.

THE OCCASION was a great one and Nettie had a very, very fabulous evening. Members of the press were invited and the party was one of the finest we have had the rare privilege of attending in quite some time. Included among the guests were: Mazell Lotts, Frank Quarles, William Jones, William White, Raymond Miles, Raymond Claypool, Janice Bonner, Evelyn Stewart and William Stewart, Robert Anderson, Juanita Anderson, Holliis Pershing, Jimmy Gill, and Elizabeth Williams. Mr. Gill is mixologist at the club. Leroy (Mr. Fabulous) Johnson and James Rogers came in like late freight and the ball really began to roll. Apparently, everyone enjoyed themselves very madly. The table was set up beautifully and the food was delicious, really out of this world. The variety was so great it's too numerous to mention. Unexpectedly, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson of N. Capitol Avenue dropped in and things began to jump and how! In the event there are persons mentioned here who forgot to inform other people of this auspicious occasion, please forgive. Members of the press were guests of the Fabulous Mrs. Nettie Benn.

THINGS WE DIDN'T KNOW UNTIL NOW . . . That Joe Louis is in the public relations bizness with Billy Rowe, formerly Seventh Deputy Police Commissioner of New York . . . That he is president of the Joe Louis Milk Company of Chicago at $10,000 a year. The company operates 20 trucks on the street . . . That he draws down $20,000 a year as Director of Boxing for the International Boxing Club.

TRIPLE FLASH . . . Nat (King) Cole bought a $500 membership in the NAACP according to a radio broadcast from Cincinnati, last Tuesday . . . Vietta Garr and Mrs. Leola Estes, servants of the Truman family, were guests at the recent wedding of the ex-president and Mrs. Truman's daughter's wedding in Independence, Missouri . . . J. J. Johnson, the well known musician, passed thru the city last week enroute to California, for a 6-week engagement . . . We forgot all about the big surprise party for Leo Lesser, Jr., which was held on April 21st. So sorry. Excuse, puh-lease!

BREEZING ALONG WITH THE NEWS . . . John Earl has returned home from General Hospital . . . Ben Cloyd and James Harmon Lewis were in town a few days back from Franklin . . . Picked up on James (Big Town) Mitchell's picture with committee on bus protest in Montgomery, Ala. The pix appeared in a national weekly a few wks back. The fella is really in the thick of things . . . Bill Robinson, an employee of Tony Murelo Banana Co., tells his boss wants to meet the Saint. This goes double. Yeah man!

WILLIAM (JOCK) JOHNSON was seen at the Sunset Cafe several days back . . . Mary Bennett was all smiles 'tother nite at Jack's Bluebird Inn while listening to the swingy tunes offered by King Booker and his combo . . . Milton Harding dropped in for a chat and was surprised to learn that we knew his daughter, June . . . He introduced us to his wife, Eva, over the telephone . . . SIDNEY POITIER WINS ACCL FOR FILM PERFORMANCES

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—One of the most brilliant young actors to come to Hollywood in the last decade is husky, soft-spoken Sidney Poitier, currently appearing in William A. Wellman's "Good-bye, My Lady," a Batjac production for Warner Bros.

Poitier, who rose to Broadway fame with his unforgettable performance in the original stage version of "Anna Lucasta," made his Hollywood debut in "No Way Out," with Richard Widmark.

This was followed by top featured portrayals in "Cry the Beloved Country," "Red Ball Express," "Home of the Brave" and "Go Man Go."

Poitier climaxed this string of performances by winning national critical acclaim for his excellent acting job in "Blackboard Jungle." In "Good-bye, My Lady," Poitier from all contracts with the firm for their failure to comply with certain provisions of the contracts.

B. B. KING

plays an important supporting role to share Walter Brennan, Phil Harris and Brandon de Wilde. Tribute to Poitier's ability came from director Wellman, who after reading the script of the James Street novel said, "Get me Sidney Poitier for the part of Gates Watson. He's the only man that can do the job I want."

"Backlash" With Richard Widmark Starts Sunday At Walker Theater

Richard Widmark and Donna Reed co-star in "Backlash," Technicolor outdoor adventure drama from Universal-International, which opens Sunday at the Walker theater.

Elements of mystery and suspense take "Backlash" far from the beaten path of tales of the old West. The story concerns the relentless quest of a youth, played by Widmark, for the supposed murderers of his missing father.

Chief supporting roles in the picture are played by William Campbell, John McIntire, Barton MacLane, Edward C. Platt and Harry Morgan. Based on a novel by Frank Gruber, the screen play is by Borden Chase and was produced by Aaron Rosenberg.

No. 2 pix is "All Heaven Allows" with Jane Wyman and Rock Hudson.

Now showing thru Saturday is "Black Tuesday" with Edw. G. Robinson. Also "Return of Jack Slade" starring John Erickson Wester.

MUSICAL UPBEAT

By BOB WOMACK

MANY THANKS to vocalist and staff-man, Ernest Rich for pinching this columnist last week. The guy has what it takes to become one of our leading newspaper men in the very, very near future. Ernest has appeared in many of the local nite spots here and is considered one of our best singers in this part of the country. We go along with his program with regard to having a musicians' club where all the cats and other entertainers in the musical world can get together socially and other-wise. Let's hear from you fans and entertainers out there with regards to this idea. The club name has already been suggested — CELEBRITY HOUSE — by Mr. Rich and associates. Don't forget to write or call the Indianapolis Theatrical Dept. — ME. 4-7049. Address, 518 Indiana Ave. Don't fail, contact us today.

A FEW NITE SPOTS AND TAVERNS here are now using combos two nights a week, mostly on Friday and Saturday nites and then, there are some, working three nights more than two nights a week. As you know, LIVE MUSIC WILL DRAW A CROWD. The spots who use music only twice a week will lose out to those who have additional nights for their combos. So, I have been told. The musicians are really having a hard time of it right through here. The Musicians Union is not much help as far as this situation goes because they do not book attractions on any jobs. However I have been advised that starting next month many (6 nights) location gigs will open up for the poor cats (smile).

PERCUSSION IN HI-FI. . . Hi-Fi addicts should be especially gratified at the prospect of subjecting their woofers and 50-watt amplifiers to the exotic Indian and African rhythms in Capitol Records' new release, "Percussion." The album includes Milhaud's "Concerto For Percussion and Small Orchestra"; Chavez's "Toccatto For Percussion"; and Bartok's "Music for String Instruments." The uniqueness of the Bartok side is that it exactly follows the composer's intentions. Bartok indicated in the score of this work that the orchestra should be held to chamber size of approximately 28 instruments. Harold Byrns conducting the Los Angeles Chamber Symphony has been faithful to the mood and orchestral fabric intended by Bartok and his performance is considered by Capitol's classified department to be one of the major achievements in their classical catalog.

ONLY IN HOLLYWOOD. . . Nashville disk jockey Marie Blum, a shapely dark-eyed doll, recently visited Hollywood, while lunching in the Paramount commissary, Cecil B. DeMille walked in with entourage, sat across from her. He smiled, she smiled back. When she prepared to exit DeMille sent his associate producer over to say they were interested in considering her for a part in a new production. With considerable disbelief she answered a potfull of questions about herself, said she'd send photos to him when she arrived back in Nashville. Needless to say, she shook all the way back to her hotel, astonished her mother with the story. "That's the way I heard things happened in Hollywood," Marie exclaimed, "but I still don't believe it."

VAMP TILL READY. . . Nationally known T. V. star, 88'er, vocalist and arranger Step Wharton is up and around after a long illness. The cat is looking fine and fat. No foolin'. . . I understand that he will be waiting on a location gig soon.

Lanny Price and his trio are currently in a Shelbyville bistro, working six nights a week. Johnny Harris the talk of the Brass Rail Tavern, not forgetting Count Fisher who is going into his eighth week at the '39 Club.

That mighty man, Willis "Mr. Hammond" Dyer, his organ and sensational combo still on the bandstand at the Tropic Club. (The cats must be out to make a record stay.)

AUDIENCE APPROVAL. . . Food and drink to a performer, has not always been indicated by clapping. Approval was shown in the 18th Century by striking one's walking stick against one's seat. They still stomp their feet in provincial France when they like the performance; they whistle in Spain and in ancient India they snap the fingers of one hand if you're good, both hands if you're very, very good. While applause between the movements of a symphony is considered bad taste, the concert goer feels free to clap between movements of a concerto. Reason? . . . No one really knows.

It is rumored that the claque still exist in some opera audiences. Those are professional clappers, hired by certain singers to applaud at the proper time. This custom stems from Paris in 1820 when the claque careerist was at his prime, supposedly charming those around him in the audience to laugh or to weep, at will.

THE MANAGEMENT of the Illinois Cocktail Lounge announced recently that prices on all refreshments have been greatly reduced. Bob Womack and his BobCats' combo are still on the bandstand for your musical pleasure (eight minutes). Incidentally some of the visiting union musicians have been holding hot jam sessions there during the evenings. . . Why not dig a few of them? . . . The cats are really jumpin', believe me when I tell you. . . It looks like the spot will soon become another jazzdom. The same as the late Elite (1523) Club.

ROTH WAX ON DECCA. . . Best-seller "Till Cry Tomorrow," autobiography of singer Lillian Roth, now being syndicated in newspapers throughout the country, also will be the title of a new Coral album featuring the entertainer. In addition to the title tune, the album will include other songs long associated with Miss Roth, "Did You Ever See a Dream Walking?" "Eadie was a Lady," and "Please Tell Me When I Will Meet You Again." . . . An outstanding triumph in the career of Marian Anderson — her appearance in the Metropolitan Opera Association's production of "A Masked Ball" — has been recorded recently by RCA Victor. With the same cast of principals heard in the Met. production of "Masked Ball," the recording was conducted by Dimitri Mitropoulos, guest conductor of the Met featuring in the recording is Miss Anderson as Ulrica, Zinka Milanov

ROCK And ROLL — The House will Rock

Maxine Sullivan, Valetti, To Feature "What's New In Music"
NEW YORK (ANP) — Maxine Sullivan, popular night club and recording artist, and Cesaro Valletti, lyric tenor of the Metropolitan Opera, will be featured on CBS Radio's "The Woolworth Hour: What's New In Music" Sunday, April 29 at 1:00-2:00 P. M., EST.

Miss Sullivan, who excited the nation nearly two decades ago with her jazz version of the Scotch ballad "Loch Lomond," will repeat it on this program, in a 1956 version. She will sing one of her new hits, "When Your Lover Has Gone."

Valletti will sing one of the great arias he does at the Metropolitan, "Una furtiva lacrima" from Donizetti's "L'Elisir d'Amore."

Isabelle Cooley In Slave Girl Role

HOLLYWOOD (ANP)—Isabelle Cooley, stage and TV actress long remembered for her portrayal of the title role in Broadway's "Anna Lucasta," joins the cast of MGM's "Raintree County," starring Montgomery Clift, Elizabeth Taylor and Eva Marie Saint.

Miss Cooley plays the role of a slave girl, who is given her freedom by Miss Taylor to appease the anti-slavery feelings of Montgomery Clift.

"Raintree County," a strong love story with a Civil War background, went into production with Robert Surtees, two-time Academy Award winner, behind the new 65-mm. Cameras. David Lewis is producing, Edward Dmytryk directing from Millard Kaufman's screen play.

"Baby" Holds Premiere of Film Starring James Edwards

LOS ANGELES (ANP) — "BABY," an auxiliary to the Los Angeles County Bureau of Adoptions, held the premiere of a documentary film which has been released for group showings.

"My Very Own" starring James Edwards and Helene Hughes, is a 30-minute film dealing with the various problems which face a couple attempting to adopt a baby from the County agency.

PERCUSSIONIST DELUXE . . . Willis Kirk, the young drummer-man and arranger, has the distinction of having toured with the great Lionel Hampton and his internationally-known orchestra. Mr. Kirk, a graduate of Attucks High School and the Jordan Conservatory of Music at Butler University, is considered one of the top percussionists in the country. His unique style and depth of action is the envy of musicians everywhere. Aside from playing in the Attucks band, he has played most of the city's bistros, and is currently wowin' patrons at the swank Topper Club with Johnson Collins' combo. He is married and a member in good standing of Musicians Local No. 3.

In Memoriam

HAIRSTON—In loving memory of my father, ANDREW HAIRSTON, who died April 23, 1942. At twilight, when I sit alone, In the afterglow of setting sun, I take my cherished memories out, And count them over, one by one; Jewels all, reflecting beauty From joys we shared through all the years, Each time etched facet gleaming brightly Through a misty veil of years. Velma Hairston-Dillon, Daughter.

LYLES—In loving memory of our dear mother, MATILDA LYLES, who passed away April 29, 1944. The mother God gave and then took from us. Is at peace in the Isle of the Blest. And even while bitter tears fall Mother Dear, We know God in his wisdom knew best. Sadly missed by Your Children.

BOGGS—In loving memory of PEARL BOGGS, who passed away April 20, 1951. In our hearts the touch of memory, Burns unflinching, bright and true; Its light is sweet for it is fed On love and tender thoughts of you. Mary Frances Parker, Niece Marie Garner, Friend

STEPHENS—In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, MRS. NORA H. STEPHENS, departed this life May 6, 1941. Dearest Mommie: We have shed many tears in the last 15 years. Yet we know that God knew best. When He took you home to rest. Wherry and Dorsey Tucker, Sons Blanche Banks, Daughter, Nora Fitzpatrick, Dorsey and John Tucker, Grandchildren.

TYLER—In loving memory of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, FANNIE R. TYLER, who passed away April 30, 1954. Only the gentle memory, Of a sweet and loving wife, Could bear me up through lonely years Of burden-bearing we call life. William Tyler, Husband. Lelia Miller, Daughter. Bernice Johnson, Richard Miller, Grandchildren.

JACKSON—In loving memory of our daughter and sister, Anna Belvia Dyer Jackson who passed April 29, 1937. We don't forget you, nor do we intend. We think of you often, and will to the end; Gone and forgotten by some you may be But dear to our memory you ever will be. The Dyer Family.

WISDOM OF THE AGES

"No man, for any considerable period, can wear one face to himself, and another to the multitude."

The reputation of an organization rests upon the opinion of those who are served. Real appreciation becomes public knowledge and develops confidence and goodwill.

Who but the coach of the Attacks High School Basket Ball team could get and keep together a group of fine young people to bring pride, honor and distinction to young Negroes citizens of tomorrow? Do you think these people were looking for pity? No, we don't want your pity, but a chance. God has sufficient pity for us all.
